

honor roll of donors

The Woolsack Society is the premier donor-recognition society for Marquette Law School. It recognizes those donors whose annual gifts of $2,000 and more provide the Law School with money to live by. While endowment funding—money to grow by—is critical to the future of the School, Woolsack support provides the Dean with funds to meet its greatest current needs. All of the individuals listed on the Woolsack Society Honor Roll have donated or pledged $2,000 or more to the Law School between July 1, 2002 and September 10, 2003. This is an annual giving society.

thank you

The family of James F. Honzik, L'48, has established an endowed scholarship to honor his memory and his contributions to the legal profession. Mr. Honzik passed away in July of this year after practicing law in Milwaukee for more than 40 years. The $25,000 endowment will provide perpetual funds that will allow the Law School to distribute need-based scholarships. His daughter, Mary Honzik Kliesmet, Eng '77, L'81, said the scholarship was a natural choice for the family because her father felt very close to the Law School. The fund was supported in part by memorial contributions after Mr. Honzik's death and in part by the Honzik family. The Law School and its students thank the Honzik family for its generosity. •

Everything done at the Law School is intended to enhance the education and experience offered to students. Every improvement made, every faculty member attracted, every dollar received supports the men and women who come to our school expecting great things of us and great things of themselves.

Through the generosity of our donors, Marquette University Law School is able to reach toward a level of excellence.

We thank you for your generosity.

Every effort has been made to present an accurate and complete list. If you find an error or omission, please contact Jason Kraiss at (414) 288-5285 or jason.kraiss@marquette.edu.
