

Dear Attorney Members,

It was such a success last year they're bringing it back this summer!

I'm referring, of course, to the second annual Litigation, Dispute Resolution, and Appellate Practice Institute scheduled for June 11 & 12, 2012, at Chula Vista Resort, Wisconsin Dells.

The Institute is a great way to earn up to 11.5 CLE credits while socializing with your peers from around that state.

There will be 27 exceptional CLE programs to choose from, and two nationally known speakers: Bill Ginsberg, President of the American Board of Trial Advocates Foundation; and Jim Calloway, Practice Management Advisor for the Oklahoma State Bar.

For a list of topics, click here. We're certain you'll find sessions that will add to your knowledge.

As a free bonus for attendees, select programs are going to be webcast later, so you can then earn even more CLE.

As we learned last year, the Litigation, Dispute Resolution, and Appellate Practice Institute is one of the best opportunities for our members to attend high-quality CLE.

Sincerely,

Cathy Warmington, Esq.
