

CLINICS, JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS AND SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS

2022 SUMMER PROGRAMS

Responding to a substantial expression of interest by students and the successes enjoyed during the last twenty summer sessions, the Law School will again offer a variety of clinical, judicial internship and supervised fieldwork placements during the 2022 summer session. These are accredited programs and are offered in addition to the array of regular Law School courses scheduled for the summer. The goal is to make these programs as accessible as possible to students who would like to do an internship in addition to any other activities they have planned for the summer. In the typical summer session 70 - 80 students (including many rising 2Ls) participate in an accredited internship.¹

Programs that we expect to be available are described in the pages which follow. Once student interest is determined, Professor Hammer will confirm placements and arrangements with each student on an individual basis. The regular summer session tuition ($ 1,965 per credit) is applicable to these placements.

EARLY PLACEMENT PROCESS

Placements can be arranged at any time between now and the beginning of the summer session. However, Professor Hammer will begin making early placements in March. If you wish to take advantage of early placement, please file the attached application at Professor Hammer's office in Eckstein Hall Suite 453 by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 3, 2022. Early placement is highly recommended because most internships fill quickly. For several of our programs we must contend with competition from students attending other law schools who are also seeking summer internship opportunities in the Milwaukee area. Marquette wants to secure as many of these internship placements as possible for MULS students and early placement can accomplish that.

The summer session offers some flexibility for participating students. Placements are not compartmentalized into one of the two summer sessions that are used for other courses. This means that time at the field site can be spread over a longer period of time (May 23 to early August). In most instances scheduling is flexible to accommodate both the agency and the student. Students are expected to be in residence at their internship site for a minimum of eight weeks over the course of the summer. It is expected that interns will start their summer internships during the week of May 23, 2022 when various orientation programs will be scheduled.

¹ More than 70% of recent graduates participated in at least one internship and many completed more than one. On an annual basis the total enrollment of students in the fall, spring and summer internship programs is close to 300.

News and Announcements About the 2022 Summer Term Internship Program

1. COVID-19 Update. Though we still find ourselves in the midst of a pandemic, the Law School is fortunate that all internship placements that were in place prior to COVID-19 are now once again actively participating in the internship program. Many are now fully in-person experiences; some offer a mix of in-person and remote experiences; the remainder are exclusively remote experiences (though that could change as we continue to emerge from the pandemic).
2. After a COVID-related interruption, the Supervised Fieldwork placements at the AIDS Resource Center (officially known as Vivent Health) and at the Milwaukee Office of the Internal Revenue Service will resume internship operations in the 2022 summer term.
3. Responding to increased interest in one-semester prosecutor internships, the Law School has expanded the number of such placements. During the 2022 summer term, positions will be available in the District Attorney's Offices in Racine, Kenosha, Ozaukee, Sheboygan, Fond du Lac, and Washington Counties. District Attorneys in two counties that are more remote from Milwaukee (Columbia County in Portage, Wisconsin and Marinette County in Marinette, Wisconsin) have reached out to the Law School to offer internship placements. Students with an interest in interning in any other prosecutor's office should contact Professor Hammer to explore this option.
4. We continue the process of reactivating the Judicial Internships at the Milwaukee County Circuit Court. These internships were suspended when COVID-19 first struck and the Courthouse was closed to in-person proceedings. In the 2022 spring term the placements in the Felony Division of the Circuit Court with judges who hear homicide and sexual assault cases were reactivated. For the 2022 summer term the number of Felony Division placements will be expanded, and the judicial internship at the Children's Division of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court will be reopened.
5. Wisconsin's New Student Practice Rule. The Wisconsin Supreme Court has adopted a new Student Practice Rule for our state, which took effect on July 1, 2021. Under the new rule a law student can be certified for student practice once he or she has completed the 1L curriculum as prescribed for full-time students. The rule authorizes students to make supervised court appearances, negotiate on behalf of a client, and counsel and give legal advice. See Wisconsin Supreme Court Rules Chapter 50. The Law School will certify all qualifying interns under the rule if their placements offer student practice experiences.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING CREDITS

The Law School's internship programs (clinics, judicial internships and supervised fieldwork externships) offer multiple opportunities for earning the experiential learning credits that are required of all students who commenced the study of law on and after August 15, 2015. In that regard, please note the following passage from Marquette University Law School Academic Regulations § 201(6)(c):

Students commencing the study of law on or after August 15, 2015 must complete a minimum of six credits in experiential courses. Students may satisfy this requirement by completing six or more credits in the following types of courses:

Advanced Legal Research Courses
Workshops
Clinics
Supervised Field Placements
Judicial Internships – Appellate
Judicial Internships – Trial – Federal Trial Courts Only

CREATING YOUR OWN INTERNSHIP

Sometimes a student will arrange to do his/her own summer internship with a court, governmental agency, or nonprofit providing legal services with which the Law School does not have an ongoing clinical arrangement. Some of these may qualify for academic credit if they meet the requirements imposed upon the Law School by its accrediting agencies. You should confer with Prof. Hammer to discuss the availability of credit for such special placements. During the typical summer, several MULS students do these special internships for credit (many of which are with courts or governmental agencies in other parts of the country or in Wisconsin locations that are remote from Milwaukee). There is a place on the application form to indicate these special Judicial Internship and Supervised Fieldwork Program placements. Internships for academic credit are not available with for-profit institutions, including private law firms.

CAN YOU PARTICIPATE IN A SUMMER INTERNSHIP AND ALSO PARTICIPATE IN THE SUMMER STUDY PROGRAM IN GIESSEN, GERMANY?

The answer is “yes.” Summer internships require a student to be in residence at his/her internship site for a minimum of 8 weeks. Summer session internships begin during the week of May 23, 2022. Thus, a student could complete his or her internship residency requirement in time to participate in the Law School’s Summer Study Program in Giessen, Germany which begins on July 16, 2022. Note: Students who participate in the summer Law & Entrepreneurship Clinic and in the summer Mediation Clinic are not able to participate in the Giessen program because these clinics are in still in session at the time the Giessen program begins.

CRIMINAL PROCESS PREREQUISITE FOR SUMMER JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS IN THE CRIMINAL COURTS

Summer placements in the Milwaukee County Circuit Court Felony Division (part of the Judicial Internship program) require completion of the Criminal Process course as a prerequisite for enrollment. Students will be admitted to these placements if they enroll in the Criminal Process course during the first summer session because the course will be concluded in the very early part of any criminal court internship for which it is a prerequisite. Prof. Hammer will also work with the Criminal Process students on an individual basis during the summer to assure their preparedness for their criminal court internships. Many rising 2Ls with an interest in criminal law have pursued this option.

PROGRAM PREREQUISITES AND SELECTION CRITERIA

In order to participate in one of the Clinics, Judicial Internships or Supervised Fieldwork Programs, students must be in good academic standing (i.e., not on academic probation) and must have completed the 1L curriculum. Many programs also have prerequisites or co-requisites. These requirements are designed to assure that participants have the background necessary for meaningful participation in an internship. Prerequisites and co-requisites are included in the descriptions of placements that follow in this application packet or on the application form itself.

The goal of the placement process is to match applicants with internships in which they have expressed a high priority interest and in which they have the best opportunity for an optimal internship experience. Among the factors considered in the award of placements are the following: the program priorities identified by the applicant on the application form, the applicant's preparedness for the internship(s) for which he/she has applied (including completion of specified minimum credits, satisfaction of any prerequisites or co-requisites, and overall academic performance to date), the applicant's proximity to graduation, the opportunity an applicant has already had to participate in an internship and the quality of his/her performance therein, any relevant experiences as revealed on the applicant's resume, and information provided in the optional personal statement that applicants are invited to furnish with their resumes (see application form for details on how to furnish a personal expression of interest in a particular internship).

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR “RISING 2Ls”

Some internships require specialized training before students are ready to undertake participation in them. Prerequisite courses are examples of such specialized training. However, many judicial internships and supervised fieldwork programs only require completion of 28 credits; those who are just finishing their 1L year thus qualify for these programs.

Many rising 2Ls have successfully participated in judicial internships at the Wisconsin Supreme Court, at the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, and at the federal trial courts (United States District Courts). Likewise, many rising 2Ls have been admitted to one of the many Supervised Fieldwork Program internships that do not have specialized requirements beyond completion of the 1L curriculum, e.g., AIDS Resource Center, Legal Aid Society, Legal Action of Wisconsin, Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants, Disability Rights Wisconsin, Wisconsin Department of Justice (Office of the Attorney General), the Milwaukee City Attorney's Office, Medical College of Wisconsin Risk Management Office, the Governor's Office of Legal Counsel, and several others.

DO YOU HAVE TIME TO PARTICIPATE IN A SUMMER INTERNSHIP?

Summer internships are akin to part-time jobs. They take place over a flexible span of time (late May through early August). Most are offered for 2 credits and require a time commitment of 120 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks in residence at the internship site. [The limited number of 3-credit internships require a time commitment of 180 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks in residence.] When the math is done, that translates into about 15 hours per week for a 2-credit internship (a few less if time in residence is extended beyond 8 weeks) and 22.5 hours per week for a 3-credit internship (a few less if time in residence is extended beyond 8 weeks). The amount of time devoted to the internship is to be evenly distributed across the weeks in residence such that interns work the same approximate number of hours each and every week. Even though this time commitment is substantial, participating students still have considerable additional time to take another summer session course or to engage in summer employment. The flexibility of summer internships also makes them more accessible to those part-time students who may have a little more “give” in their schedules during the summer. You should carefully note any scheduling advice for particular internships that is included in these application materials.

TRANSACTIONAL LAWYERING

The Law School’s internship programs have traditionally offered multiple opportunities for obtaining practical experience on the “litigation” side of lawyering. The internship program now offers a number of placements that focus more on the “transactional” side of lawyering. Students with an interest in the latter may wish to consider the following summer placements:

1. Blood Center of Wisconsin Office of Corporate Counsel
 2. Marquette Law and Entrepreneurship Clinic
 3. Marquette University Office of General Counsel
 4. Medical College of Wisconsin Office of General Counsel
 5. Milwaukee City Attorney’s Office (offering opportunities for both transactional and litigation experience)
 6. Milwaukee County Economic Development Division
 7. Milwaukee County Parks Department

PUBLIC INTEREST LAWYERING

In its statement of institutional learning outcomes, the Law School states among its aspirations that, upon graduation, the Marquette lawyer “will recognize the challenges confronting the poor, marginalized, and under-represented in society, consistent with the Jesuit mission.”² The Law School’s program of Clinics and Supervised Fieldwork Programs is designed to strongly support that mission while at the same time providing rich opportunities for students to acquire such vital lawyering skills as client interviewing, fact investigation and analysis, problem solving, written and oral communication, legal research, etc.

² “Learning Outcomes: Marquette University Law School” (adopted by Law Faculty in 2016).

The many public interest internships offered in the summer include the following:

1. Marquette Law & Entrepreneurship Clinic
2. Mediation Clinic
3. Supervised Fieldwork: Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants
4. Supervised Fieldwork: Centro Legal
5. Supervised Fieldwork: Disability Rights Wisconsin
6. Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Action of Wisconsin
7. Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee
8. Supervised Fieldwork: MVLC Estate Planning Clinic
9. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Appellate Division
10. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Juvenile Division
(Milwaukee)
11. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender (Racine and Waukesha Trial Division Offices)

WISCONSIN STUDENT PRACTICE RULE

Marquette is fortunate to be located in a state that offers law students an opportunity to work on their litigation skills and to get real courtroom experience while they are still in school. The Wisconsin Student Practice Rule provides that students may make supervised court appearances as part of their internships if they are certified for student practice under the Rule. To qualify for certification, a student must be in good academic standing and must have completed the IL curriculum as prescribed for full-time students. Completion of a student practice internship can be a valuable credential on a student's resume, especially if the student will be pursuing employment opportunities that involve litigation (either civil or criminal).

Student Practice Rule internships at Marquette that will be offered during the summer session include the following:

1. Supervised Fieldwork: District Attorney Offices in Fond du Lac County, Kenosha County, Ozaukee County, Racine County, Sheboygan County and Washington County.
2. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Trial Division Offices in Racine and Waukesha Counties.

WISCONSIN STUDENT PRACTICE RULE (continued)

3. Supervised Fieldwork: Centro Legal (handling family law and misdemeanor defense matters)
4. Supervised Fieldwork: Lagmann, Inc.
5. Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society Guardian ad Litem Division
6. Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee City Attorney's Office (prosecuting cases in the Milwaukee Municipal Court)
7. Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee County District Attorney CHIPS/TPR Unit (handling cases involving abused or neglected children)
8. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Juvenile Division in Milwaukee (handling juvenile delinquency cases)
9. Supervised Fieldwork: United States Attorney's Office (under the Student Practice Rule as adopted by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin).

The Student Practice Rule also authorizes supervised client counseling and supervised negotiating. Opportunities for these kinds of activities are also available in many of the Law School's clinical placements.

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE PART-TIME STUDENT

The Law School is committed to making its Clinics, Judicial Internships and Supervised Fieldwork Programs broadly available to qualified students, including those attending law school on a part-time basis. Achieving this goal can be challenging with respect to those part-time students who have substantial commitments outside the Law School during normal daytime business hours. Most courts, government agencies, and public interest law offices at which the Law School has established clinical programs close for the day at about the same time part-time students with daytime employment are available to participate in clinical work.

Despite these challenges, there are a number of placements within the clinical program that can accommodate part-time students who have a little flexibility in their daytime work schedules. The following are recommended for the consideration of those with that flexibility:

- ❑ Mediation Clinic
- ❑ Judicial Internship: Wisconsin Supreme Court

- ❑ Judicial Internship: Wisconsin Court of Appeals
- ❑ Judicial Internship: U. S. District Court
- ❑ Supervised Fieldwork: Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants
- ❑ Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Action of Wisconsin
- ❑ Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society
- ❑ Supervised Fieldwork: Medical College of Wisconsin Office of Risk Management
- ❑ Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin National Guard Staff Judge Advocate

Part-time students with questions about these or any other components of the clinical curriculum should see Professor Hammer.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

A few of the internship programs may require regular travel to Madison or certain other locations like Waukesha, West Bend, Port Washington, Racine, Kenosha, Fond du Lac, Green Bay and Chicago, if the fieldwork sites are open for in-person reporting during this time of the pandemic. To assist students in financing the cost of required travel, the Dean has generously approved a partial mileage reimbursement plan. Details will be provided to those who are selected for participation in these programs.

COMPENSATION

There is no monetary compensation for participation in the programs described in this registration packet.

LIABILITY RELEASE AND WAIVER

The Law School does not require participation in an internship program as a requirement for the award of the Juris Doctor degree. Students thus participate in internships as a voluntary curricular choice.

In order to be placed into an internship, an applicant must execute a standard “Liability Release and Waiver” form that has been developed by the Office of General Counsel of Marquette University. A copy of the form is attached to the internship application (see page 43) and must be executed and filed with the application in order for a student to be considered for an internship placement.

LAW AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP CLINIC (3 CREDITS)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 3, 2022
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

The Marquette Law and Entrepreneurship Clinic will operate as a full-service summer clinic during the 2022 summer session. Under the leadership of the clinic director, Professor Nathan Hammons, the clinic provides pro bono legal services to startup businesses and entrepreneurs in southeast Wisconsin with a focus on clients who lack access to the traditional legal marketplace. Students participate under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule to counsel clients on transactional matters, such as business entity selection and formation, corporate governance, funding, business contracts, employment issues, licenses and permits, basic intellectual property matters, and real estate. The clinic is designed to advance Marquette University's mission of fostering personal and professional excellence, developing ethical and informed leaders, and service to others.

The clinic will operate for 9 weeks in the 2022 summer session commencing during the week of May 23, 2022. During the program students will meet with, interview, and provide transactional legal services to clients under the supervision of the clinic's director or local attorneys who are assisting the clinic. The clinic is physically located in offices at the Law School.

Students will also meet in person each week in a classroom setting at a time to be determined in consultation with the participants. During that time, they will receive practical skills training and instruction in substantive legal areas. Topics will include client interviewing and counseling, document drafting, business negotiations, governmental filings, legal research and writing, issue spotting, client risk management, and law practice management. Students will also engage in "case rounds" (discussions about active client matters).

Credits: 3

Time Commitment: 120 hours (not including the classroom component), spread over the course of 9 weeks

Graded: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Prerequisite: Business Associations

Prerequisite or Summer Term Co-Requisite: Law Governing Lawyers

LEC Clinic Note # 1: The clinic will strongly prefer students who have completed at least one course (in addition to Business Associations) in an applicable substantive area (e.g., business planning, commercial law, contract drafting, corporate finance, employment law, federal taxation, intellectual property, real estate law, or securities regulation).

LEC Clinic Note # 2: Students who participate in the summer LEC clinic are not eligible to participate in the LEC clinic that will operate during the 2022-2023 academic year.

MEDIATION CLINIC

(2 CREDITS)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 3, 2022
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

In the Small Claims Pro Se Litigant Mediation Clinic, second and third year law students mediate actual civil cases in the Milwaukee County Circuit Court Small Claims Division. Under the supervision of an experienced mediator, students serve as third party neutrals in real cases in which the parties are not represented by counsel. The Clinic meets from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Mondays from May 23, 2022 through August 1, 2022. It does not meet on May 30 (Memorial Day) or on the Fourth of July. During this time of COVID-19, the mediations are being conducted remotely and it is anticipated that this medium will continue to be used throughout the summer. All students in the Clinic must participate in a weekend of mediation training at the beginning of the internship on dates to be announced by Clinic Director Natalie Fleury.

The mediation clinical experience gives students the opportunity to develop listening and problem-solving skills as well as the opportunity to work directly with persons facing a variety of legal, social, and economic problems. The clinic is designed to advance Marquette University's Jesuit mission of service to those in need by assisting small claims litigants who are struggling without professional representation in court.

The learning objectives of the Mediation Clinic include:

- Understanding the dynamics that lead to conflicts;
- Understanding alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes;
- Understanding how ADR processes work in the court system;
- Understanding one's own conflict style and listening style;
- Developing enhanced communication and active listening skills;
- Facilitating negotiations and building advanced negotiation skills;
- Developing and implementing problem-solving strategies;
- Working directly with pro se litigants to resolve conflicts.

Enrollment is limited to students who have completed 28 credits.

Prerequisites: None.

Graded: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

PROSECUTOR CLINIC, PUBLIC DEFENDER CLINIC AND UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION CLINIC

The Prosecutor Clinic, Public Defender Clinic, and the Unemployment Compensation Clinic do not operate during the summer session. They will resume operations during the 2022 fall semester.

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS

Judicial Internship programs are grouped into two categories: Appellate Courts and Trial Courts. Each of these popular programs offers students an opportunity to participate in the work of the judiciary through assignment to a specific appellate or trial court chambers. For those who might consider clerking after graduation, this is an opportunity to get a glimpse at what clerking entails; this is especially true in the appellate court programs and in the federal trial court programs. For others, the chance to be a working member of a court staff and to observe first-hand the business of judging can be an invaluable educational experience that helps prepare them to function effectively in the courts as practicing lawyers.

There is a classroom component to the judicial internship programs that will meet several times during the summer to cover material relevant to the work of judicial interns. These meetings will be scheduled once participating students have been identified. The meetings will not overlap with any regularly scheduled summer session classes.

A student may participate in both the Appellate Courts program and the Trial Courts program, though not at the same time.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES OF THE JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

While the experience of each judicial intern will vary depending upon the type of court in which the student works and the judge/justice to whom the student is assigned, the Judicial Internship Program is intended to afford each of its participants the following educational opportunities:

- Exposure to new substantive areas of the law (or exposure to familiar areas of substantive law but at a more sophisticated level)
- An understanding of the court system in which the student works and the procedures utilized to advance cases through that system
- An immersion in the law of procedure (civil, criminal or appellate)
- Refinement of legal research skills
- Enhancement of legal writing skills
- Exposure to the process of judicial decision-making and an understanding of those attributes of effective lawyering that materially advance the position of litigants before the court

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP: APPELLATE COURTS

(2 credits)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 3, 2022 STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

For the 2022 summer session appellate internships are available with several Justices of the Wisconsin Supreme Court and with the judges of District I (Milwaukee) and District II (Waukesha) of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals.

Credits: 2

Duration of Internship: One Semester

Time Commitment: 120 Hours (including time spent in the class meetings)

Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Prerequisite: Civil Procedure

Limited to students who have completed 28 credits.

Special Notes on Appellate Court Placements

(a) Wisconsin Supreme Court. The summer session of the Judicial Internship at the Wisconsin Supreme Court spans two phases of the Court's annual schedule. During the early weeks of the summer session the interns may assist the Justices and their law clerks in the substantial work of completing the Court's written decisions that will be released before (or shortly after) the term of the Court concludes at the end of June. Once work on the opinions for the concluding term is finished, the interns refocus their attention to helping the Justices prepare for oral arguments that will take place when a new term of the Court begins in August; the interns in this phase of their internship typically research and write bench memoranda for their assigned Justices. Supervisory feedback is received primarily from the assigned justice's law clerk. Notes: (1) As we continue to emerge from the pandemic but are without certainty as to its future, this internship looks like it will have both in-person components (involving periodic travel to Madison no more than once per week) and remote components with the exact mixture of those components established by each Justice's Chambers. (2) A student participating in the Wisconsin Supreme Court judicial internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position. (3) Because much of the student work in this program may be done remotely, several part-time students have successfully participated in the Supreme Court Judicial Internship.

(b) Wisconsin Court of Appeals. This internship is principally a legal analysis and writing experience, as students generally work on draft opinions for the judges, although other research assignments and technical work on the court's opinions may be given. As in the supreme court internships, the intern's principal contact is the judge's law clerk. Placements are available with District I and District II of the court. District I is located in the Plaza East office tower at 330 East Kilbourn Avenue in downtown Milwaukee; District II is located just off interstate highway I-94 in Waukesha County. As we continue to emerge from the pandemic but are without certainty as to its future, this internship looks like it will have both in-person components and remote components with the exact mixture of those components established by each Judge's Chambers.

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP: TRIAL COURTS

(2 credits³)

In the 2022 summer semester edition of the Judicial Internship: Trial Courts program, students will intern with a United States District Judge, a United States Bankruptcy Judge, or a Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge assigned to hear felony cases or juvenile cases. Most of these internships are presently in-person experiences, though of course that is subject to change if pandemic conditions so require.

Credits: 2 (except that 3 credits are allocated to the internship at the Chambers of U.S. District Judge Conley in Madison)

Duration of Internship: One Semester

Time Commitment: 120 Hours (including time spent in the class meetings), except that 180 hours are required for the 3-credit internship at Judge Conley's Chambers

Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Limited to students who have completed 28 credits

Prerequisites for specific trial court placements are noted on the application form.

Special Notes on Trial Court Placements

United States District Courts. For the 2022 summer term, federal trial court placements will be available with United States District Judges for the Eastern District of Wisconsin with chambers either in Milwaukee or, in the case of Judge William Griesbach, in Green Bay. A summer internship will also be available with Judge William M. Conley who presides in the ³ Three credits are allocated to the judicial internship at the Chambers of U.S. District Judge William Conley who sits in Madison. Two credits are allocated to all other trial court judicial internships.

Western District of Wisconsin (Chambers in Madison). Note: A student participating in a United States District Court internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position.

Special note regarding the placement with Judge Conley in Madison: Interns for Judge Conley earn 3 academic credits. The time commitment is 180 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks. If Judge Conley's Chambers are open for in-person reporting, the intern will typically be expected to report in person at least twice per week.

Special note regarding the placement with Judge Griesbach in Green Bay: Though judicial interns in this program will need to meet periodically (typically once per week) with the judge and his staff in Green Bay, the research and writing assignments that are a major component of this internship can be done locally. Judge Griesbach is generous in spending time with the students when they are in Green Bay and he is very accommodating with respect to the travel aspects of this internship.

Internships with the federal trial courts are principally research and writing experiences. Students work on opinions and orders and they perform such other research as may requested by the judge and the judge's clerks. They also observe proceedings in the courtroom when the judge is on the bench and proceedings in chambers when invited to do so. This internship is an excellent introduction to the workings of the federal district courts.

United States Bankruptcy Court. In this program students attend courtroom hearings, chambers proceedings, and Sec. 341 hearings before the U.S. Trustee. They also perform such research and writing on issues in bankruptcy law as may assigned by the court. This internship is particularly useful for those with an interest in creditor-debtor law. Note: A student participating in this federal judicial internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position.

SPECIAL NOTE ON TRIAL COURT JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS IN THE MILWAUKEE COUNTY CIRCUIT COURTS

The Law School's expansive set of judicial internships with the Circuit Court of Milwaukee County was suspended at the start of the 2020 summer session due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In the 2022 summer semester the Circuit Court program will be partially re-opened with placements available in the Felony Division (including the Homicide/Sexual Assault Courts) and in the Children's Division (with the judges who hear juvenile delinquency cases and cases involving abused or neglected children). These courts are now operating in person and have resumed doing trials on a regular basis. Note: A judicial internship in the Felony Division may be particularly attractive to those who intend to apply for placement in the Prosecutor Clinic and in the Public Defender Clinic for the 2022-23 academic year; these positions offer a great way to transition into the Milwaukee criminal justice system.

Milwaukee County Circuit Court internships are not principally legal analysis and legal writing experiences, but rather are opportunities to develop litigation skills by active observation of proceedings in the courtroom and judge's chambers. The judges who participate in this program are generous in spending time with their interns to discuss the matters on the court's docket and the proceedings observed by the students, such as motion hearings, pretrial conferences, trials to the court or jury, etc. Some research and writing may be involved depending upon the needs of the judges.

Scheduling Note for Circuit Court Internships: Circuit Court internships are most valuable if a student is available to be at the court in 2-3 hour blocks of time. This allows for meaningful opportunities to observe court proceedings and those that occur in chambers. Circuit courts tend to have busier and more interesting calendars in the early part of the week; in many branches the Friday calendar can be somewhat light. Thus, Fridays should ordinarily be avoided. The circuit courts typically are out of session each day from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. for lunch.

It is anticipated that in future semesters the Judicial Internship in other divisions of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court will reopen once proceedings in these courts are regularly conducted in person.

SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS

(2 credits unless noted otherwise)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 3, 2022
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

The Supervised Fieldwork Program was established by action of the Law School faculty in January, 1986. It is designed to offer students an opportunity for experiential learning in a wide variety of governmental agencies and in public interest organizations that provide legal services to those who are poor, marginalized, or otherwise underrepresented in society. Students work under guidance from agency lawyers and under the general supervision of faculty members. The program is designed to provide practical learning experiences in virtually every area of law practice.

In contemporary legal education there is a significant emphasis on what is known as experiential learning. The legal profession expects that law school graduates will have already made substantial progress in the acquisition of critical lawyering skills. At Marquette, the opportunity for skills development occurs in multiple venues. One of those venues is the workshop curriculum. Another is the Supervised Fieldwork Program. In Supervised Fieldwork there are abundant opportunities (depending upon the particular program) for the acquisition of such critical skills as interviewing and counseling, fact investigation and analysis, problem solving, written and oral communication, dispute resolution, litigation advocacy, time and project management, legal research, etc. Importantly, the Supervised Fieldwork intern develops these skills in authentic settings: they are working on real cases involving real people under the direct supervision of practicing lawyers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES OF THE SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAM

While the experience of each Supervised Fieldwork Program intern will vary depending upon the nature of his/her placement, it is nonetheless possible to articulate the following statement of educational objectives that are generally applicable in every internship setting. It is anticipated that each intern will have the opportunity for:

- Exposure to new substantive areas of the law (or exposure to familiar areas of substantive law but at a more sophisticated level)

- An immersion in the law of procedure and in the legal and organizational processes employed by the agency to accomplish its work
- The acquisition of specific lawyering skills that are relevant to the particular internship and which are articulated at the outset and measured throughout the internship
- The development of the habit of reflection and continuous self-assessment of the intern's professional growth
- The acquisition of time management and planning skills
- The assessment of one's ability to work effectively in the legal profession and the development of one's confidence in his/her ability to do so
- The identification of ethical issues that arise in the internship setting and the methods for resolving those issues

General Requirements of the Supervised Fieldwork Program

Working under the supervision of Assistant State Public Defenders, students assist in all phases of representing the poor who are accused of crime. Their duties include interviewing clients and witnesses, researching legal issues, making court appearances, participating in plea negotiations, preparing cases for trial, and assisting at trials. *Prerequisites: Criminal Process and Evidence. Clinics, Judicial Internships and Supervised Fieldwork Programs in which you have already participated:

A limited number of placements (e.g., Wisconsin Supreme Court and federal courts judicial internships) prohibit interns from simultaneously working in other law-related settings such as law firms and legal departments. Please list below any such anticipated employment you may have during the 2022 summer semester:

YOU MUST ATTACH ONE COPY OF YOUR RESUME FOR EACH PROGRAM YOU SELECT. On the back of each resume, you may but are not required to write a personal statement indicating why the program interests you. Your comments are very useful in the making of placements.

YOU MUST ATTACH ONE COPY OF YOUR CURRENT UNOFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT TO THIS APPLICATION. The transcript should include the list of courses in which you are currently enrolled. The transcript will only be used internally by the Director of Clinical Education to verify academic credentials for an internship placement, e.g., completion of prerequisite courses and eligibility for Student Practice Rule licensing. It will not be shared with the court or agency with which you are applying for placement. An unofficial CheckMarq transcript suffices for this purpose. Transfer students should include a transcript from the institution from which they transferred to Marquette.

YOU MUST SIGN THE “LIABILITY RELEASE AND WAIVER” FORM THAT IS ATTACHED TO THIS APPLICATION AND SUBMIT IT ALONG WITH YOUR APPLICATION MATERIALS. An application is not complete without this form. The form is on page 43.

Instructions for Selection of Program(s)

Please indicate your program preference(s) in the list that follows by placing your priority numbers (“1” being your first choice) next to the program(s) in which you wish to participate. Do not indicate more than 6 choices; do not combine separate lines so as to aggregate them into one choice.

You should not indicate a choice unless you are prepared to participate in the placement if selected. Remember, a placement awarded to one student may mean denying that placement to another student who desires it.
