

TENTATIVE UPPER-LEVEL COURSE OFFERINGS
Spring Semester 2023

Although courses offerings for spring semester 2023 have not yet been finalized, the following courses are among those tentatively scheduled to be offered.

Upper Level Required Courses

Evidence
Law Governing Lawyers
Trusts and Estates

General Enrollment Courses

Advanced Civil Procedure 	Family Law and ADR ***
Bar Examination Foundations II	Federal Income Taxation
Business Associations	Federal Indian Law
Community and Economic Development	The First Amendment
Community Prosecution	Forensic Science and the Law
Constitutional Criminal Procedure 	Insurance
Copyrights	Local Government Law **
Crime and Punishment in American History *	Patent and Trade Secret Law
Electronic Discovery	Professional Sports Law
Employment Law	Secured Transactions
Employment Discrimination	Starting and Managing a Law Practice
Environmental Law

* Satisfies the Law School perspectives requirement

 Satisfies the Law School public law requirement

 Satisfies the Law School process requirement

Seminars

Advanced Legal Writing	Selected Topics Seminars
Child Maltreatment	Selected Topics in Sports
Race and the Law

Workshops

Advanced Brief Writing	Legal and Business Issues in Esports
Business Bankruptcy	Legal and Business Issues in Youth, High School, and Recreational Sports
Business Planning	Mediation Advocacy
Civil Pretrial Practice	Nonprofit Law and Leadership
Contract Drafting	Real Estate Transactions
Corporate Compliance	Selected Topics Workshops
Corporate Governance	Trademark and Unfair Competition
Deposition Practice	Trial Advocacy 1
Estate Planning	Trial Advocacy 2 – Civil Trials
Guardian ad Litem	Trial Advocacy 2 – Criminal Trials
Interviewing and Counseling

Selected Advanced Legal Research Courses