

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

REGISTRATION - SUMMER SESSION 2023

Registration for the 2023 Law School Summer Session will take place on CheckMarq, beginning on March 27, 2023. Please register on CheckMarq no later than Wednesday, April 5th at 12:00 noon. While students may enroll in a summer course any time before the class begins, the decision of whether or not to offer a course will be based on CheckMarq enrollment as of April 5, 2023. After April 5, 2023, students will be notified if a course will not be offered. If a student wishes to drop after the initial registration, s/he must drop on CheckMarq before the end of the second day the class meets.

Students registered for the Law School Summer Session will receive an e-mail in their eMarq account notifying them that the e-bill is available to view in CheckMarq. Payment in full or payment arrangements (tuition remission, confirmed financial aid or University approved third party sponsors) must be made by the payment due date on the billing statement to avoid cancellation of courses. Cash and checks accepted in-person or checks accepted by mail. Payments may be made online through the Marquette Central website via direct debit from a checking or savings account. There is no additional charge for this service. Please note that debit cards cannot be used for this method of payment. Checking or savings routing and account numbers are required. Marquette does not accept credit or debit cards directly. As a convenience to you, this option is available through a third-party provider. Payment may be charged to a Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover. This service is outsourced to a third party and may be accessed through the link on the Marquette Central website or by calling (866) 893-4518. The service fee for using this option is variable depending on the amount of the charge. This system alerts the user to the service fee before they are asked for their credit or debit card information. Tuition for Summer 2023 will be $1,965 per credit.

DROP/ADD DEADLINES: Students may add any course shorter than ten weeks duration without obtaining permission to add the course no later than before the third class meeting or, for courses meeting seven or fewer times, before the second class meeting, but only if the student is eligible to take the course and the course has space available.

- (1) After the deadline provided above, a student may add a course shorter than ten weeks only with permission of the course instructor and the Associate Dean for Administration.
- (2) Except as provided in Sections 505(1) and (2) of the Law School Academic Regulations, a student may drop a course shorter than ten weeks duration no later than before the third class meeting without permission.
- (3) A student may drop a course shorter than ten weeks duration after the time provided in (2) above and before the halfway mark of the course only with the permission of the course instructor and the Associate Dean for Administration. If a student drops a course after the time period provided in (2) above, the title of that course will appear on the student's transcript with a grade of W.

- (4) A student may drop a course shorter than ten weeks duration between the halfway mark of the course and the start of exams only if there are extenuating circumstances and with the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. If a student drops a course with approval pursuant to this subsection, the title of that course will appear on the student's transcript with a grade of W.

PLEASE NOTE: No classes will be held on Memorial Day, May 29, 2023. Also, Marquette University Law School will be closed the week of July 3rd.

The maximum number of credits that may be attempted during the summer semester is 12. A student may take no more than 7 credits in the first summer session; the limitations of this sentence do not apply to summer session internships, or to other courses, including directed research and graduate assistant, that span both summer sessions.

Students from ABA approved Law Schools who wish to take summer courses at Marquette are encouraged to contact Associate Dean Bonnie M. Thomson at bonnie.thomson@marquette.edu for registration information.
