

Graduation Announcements:

Some of you have asked about graduation announcements. The University will send one announcement (not an invitation—we do not send invitations) to the individual(s) you listed on the Application for Graduation form in CheckMarq. You can also purchase graduation announcements through the Jostens website that is set up specifically for Marquette University.

The following information will be helpful to you when placing an order:

- The degree you will receive is the Juris Doctor.
- You do not have a major or minor.
- Academic honors will not be known until a few days before the Hooding Ceremony.
- You may add optional text, such as “with an emphasis in” or “with a focus in”—however, no such wording will be on your diploma or your transcript.
- For the Announcement Text, May and August graduates will select either "May 2017 Ceremony" or "May 2017 Law School Hooding Ceremony" depending on which announcement you prefer. The "May 2017 Ceremony" announcement will only provide information for the Baccalaureate Mass (Saturday, May 20) and the All-University commencement held on Sunday, May 21, 2017, and the "May 2017 Law School Hooding Ceremony" will only provide information for the hooding ceremony held on Saturday, May 20, 2017.
