MOBILE LEGAL CLINIC AWARDED TREASURE OF THE CHURCH AWARD BY ARCHDIOCES OF MILWAUKEE

It is strange to find a doctor who will do home visits and even stranger to find a lawyer that does. But here in Milwaukee, due to the generosity of attorneys Frank Daily, Julianna Ebert, and Michael Gonring, a Mobile Legal Clinic filled with professional advice comes to the door of the poor in underserved areas. In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the poor are given an equal footing before the law through the use of the Mobile Legal Clinic and the willingness of legal professionals to assist them in understanding their lawful rights and responsibilities. These generous professionals may even change the image of “the cutthroat lawyer” through their sensitive response to the needs of the poor.

Volunteer Attorney Spotlight: Thomas Hochstatter

Attorney Hochstatter is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School and is a shareholder at Hochstatter, McCarthy, Rivas & Runde, SC since 1983. Attorney Hochstatter works in the area of immigration law. He is a volunteer at the United Community Center and coordinates the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) attorneys that staff the clinic each week. Beyond the MVLC, Attorney Hochstatter enjoys spending his time horseback riding and skiing with his children.

PRAISE FOR VOLUNTEER ATTORNEY, KRISSTINA EBNER & LAW SCHOOL STUDENT, JAMES HORNSTEIN:

“The attorney and student were friendly, knowledgeable and easy to talk to. My concern was about land contracts. This was a first for her. But she jumped right in, and anything that was not familiar she researched. Thank you for sponsoring the legal clinic; it is a much needed and appreciated clinic.”
