The Richard and Wendy Lommen Jr., Courtesy Corporation Summer Fellowship

The Richard and Wendy Lommen Jr., Courtesy Corporation Summer Fellowship is a $5,000 summer fellowship for a Marquette law student doing public interest legal work focused on helping Wisconsin’s abused, neglected, or underserved children. This may include but is not limited to child guardian ad litem work.

The work must be primarily legal in nature and supervised by a licensed attorney. Only nonpartisan placements are considered. Fellowship applicants are expected to articulate in their application materials how the proposed work serves underserved children.

- Any continuing Marquette law student may apply for the Richard and Wendy Lommen Jr., Courtesy Corporation Summer Fellowship. Students planning to transfer to another law school are asked to not apply.
- Applicants are expected to identify a possible host site in the application materials. Host sites must be in Wisconsin and focused on Wisconsin’s children.
  - Special preference is given to applicants focused on serving children in the western half of Wisconsin.
- If a possible host site is not confirmed and you are awarded a fellowship, your award will be contingent on securing a site that can support public interest legal work.
- The Fellow must complete 350 hours of work during the summer and will be an active participant in the Marquette Law School Public Interest Law Society.

To apply, submit your resume, two letters of recommendation, and a statement (limited to 1,500 words) describing your past involvement in children’s issues or your connection to working for the wellbeing of children who are in need, the work you plan to perform, and the organization where you plan to perform it, to Angela Schultz, Assistant Dean for Public Service, in the Marquette Law School Office of Public Service, Eisenberg Suite 138, Attention: Richard and Wendy Lommen Jr., Courtesy Corporation Summer Fellowship.

Applications are due by 12:00 Noon on Friday, April 8th, 2016.
