Marquette Law School is housed in Eckstein Hall. The address is 1215 W. Michigan Street in Milwaukee. The building is marked as #7 on the campus map above.

Guests should pull into the parking garage marked as #7a, represented by the ★. The driveway for the garage is accessible from 11th Street (a one-way street going south). Pull a ticket as you enter the garage and bring it into the law school to be validated. From the parking garage, you will take the elevator or stairs to the first floor. The welcome desk is your first stop. The people at the welcome desk will expect your arrival and will validate your parking ticket.

If the garage is full, metered spots may be available on 11th Street or Tory Hill Drive.

If there are no metered spots available, visitor parking is available on 13th and Wells Street for $5. The structure is marked as #67 on the map.
