BEFORE YOU WATCH THE TRAINING VIDEO:
Familiarize yourself with the Milwaukee Justice Center by visiting their website www.milwaukeejusticecenter.com. The website includes information about the help desk’s hours of operation.

TRAINING:
Watch the training session recorded on August 31, 2016

PRO BONO HOURS:
Then record 1.25 hours for your training time into your pro bono account online:
https://law.marquette.edu/community/pro-bono-timesheet. If this is the first time you are logging in to your pro bono account, read the login instructions carefully. You have unique credentials for this account.

SCHEDULING:
After you have completed the training, indicate your availability on this scheduling survey:
https://mulaw.wufoo.com/forms/mjc-schedule-family-forms-assistance-clinic/

The student coordinator for this pro bono project will contact you about your schedule.

GETTING THERE: The MJC is located in Room G9 of the Milwaukee County Courthouse. Enter through the door facing Wells Street. The MJC is located immediately after the security checkpoint inside the Wells Street doors. Make a habit of bringing little or nothing with you to the MJC to make your trip through security fast and easy.
