

MVLC Student Advisory Board Member: Rachel Treuer

Rachel Treuer is a 3L at Marquette Law School who is focusing her studies on criminal law. She attended UW-Milwaukee for undergrad and majored in Criminal Justice with a double minor in History and Crime Analysis. Rachel is focusing her legal studies on criminal law because she wants to be a prosecutor after law school. Rachel is a Co-President of the Public Interest Law Society and was a PILS Fellow during Summer 2016 and Summer 2017. At Marquette, she is an officer of the Criminal Law Society. In her free time, she enjoys hanging out with her cat Max (a fluffy Ragdoll Persian), reading mystery novels and watching anything and everything crime-related.
