What I think about my neighborhood is, it is a very nice place to live, And fun to play around and it is very nice people in my neighborhood. And my neighborhood is very clean with the exception of two family and there are lots of kids in my neighborhood and they are fun people to play with. And also I met a boy name Cory, he is a very fun to play with and me and him became best friends.

In my neighborhood there are hardly a lot of violence. And there are lots of kids in my neighborhood that help the elders and I am one of those kids. In the summer I help water the grass, rake the yard and do community clean up. In the winter I shovel snow for the elders and clean the snow off people are home owner they live in the neighborhood for many of years. In fall I rack the elders leaves off there grass and then I pick the leaves up and put them in a bag. And sometimes I help my elders clean there house and sometimes I go in help my elders to the store.
