

What My Neighborhood Means To Me

By: Estrellita Soto

My neighborhood to me is a place with houses neatly lined up, people walking on the sidewalks, and greeting each other. The people in my neighborhood are Hispanic, American. The activities that take place in my neighborhood are, kids playing football or other different sports. There are also kids who enjoy bike riding, and two people walking their dogs. Around three o'clock there are people coming from work and smiling at the squirrels. People like to play loud music on weekends and my family enjoys it, except when there are three different types of music playing.

The language my neighborhood speaks is mainly Spanish, English or "hood" kind. My neighbors are mostly friendly, but some of them are very rude. My neighborhood has a gas station, a school and a restaurant. There's also a park, that my family enjoys when were taking a walk on a sunny day. There is a mechanic in our neighborhood that fixes my family's cars for a cheap price!

My neighborhood is exciting because, my neighbor goes to our park's pond to fish and he brings back awesome sea creatures! Or when the dogs of our neighborhood escape, kids go out to search for them around the alley. In the holidays my family likes to share food with our neighbors and talk with them. What I don't like about my neighborhood is the drug dealers and the littering because it just creates a big problem with people's health.
