My Hood!

My Hood!

My Hood!

My Hood is filled with guilt and shame.

My Hood is filled hope and dreams.

Dreams that might come true.

My hood is filled with life that breathes

Life that walks. Life that talks.

My hood is filled with crack that kills.

My hood is filled with love.

Love that heals the heart.

My hood also has talent.

Talents that describes our culture.

My hood is alive. It's walking. It's talking. It's learning.

My hood is me.

My hood is WE!

This is our Hood!
