

Marquette University Law School Restorative Justice Initiative

Under the direction of former Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Janine Geske, Distinguished Professor of Law, the Restorative Justice Initiative will serve as a resource for victims, communities and restorative justice organizations, a restorative justice clinical experience for law students and a program promoting scholarship, research and dialogue on restorative justice. The Initiative is committed to supporting victims and communities in the healing process by providing information, training resources and facilitating communication.

Learn more at www.marquette.edu/restorative

All organizations are encouraged to send information about their restorative justice programs, including brochures and forms to be included in a literature table at this event and permanent resource collection at Marquette University Law School.

Contact Kyle Leighton at 414.288.7924 for additional information.

*~ Restorative Justice Initiative ~
Supporting Victims and Communities in the Healing Process*

PRESORTED
FIRST-CLASS
MAIL
U.S. Postage
PAID
Milwaukee, WI
Permit No. 628

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY
LAW SCHOOL
P.O. Box 1881
MILWAUKEE, WI 53201-1881

*Please Join Us
for the premier event of*

*Marquette University Law School
~ Restorative Justice Initiative ~*

*Supporting Victims and Communities
Through the Healing Process*

Restorative Justice: Victims' Perspectives

November 18, 2004

6:30-9:30 p.m.

Varsity Theatre

1324 W. Wisconsin Avenue

Marquette University

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

*Marquette University Law School
~ Restorative Justice Initiative ~
Supporting Victims and Communities Through the Healing Process*

Program

Crime victims share their powerful experiences of victimization and the healing processes of restorative justice.

Keynote Speakers

Penny Beerhsten, sexual assault survivor

Lynn BeBeau, widowed after her husband, a police officer, was murdered in the line of duty

Karen Jones, business owner, fraud victim

Gregory Williams, survivor of armed robbery

Colleen Jo Winston, Director of Office of Victim Services & Programs, Wisconsin Department of Corrections

Presenters

Janine Geske, Distinguished Professor of Law and Founder of Marquette Law School Restorative Justice Initiative

Joseph D. Kearney, Dean and Professor of Law, Marquette University Law School

E. Michael McCann, Milwaukee County District Attorney

Marilyn Miller, Lutheran Human Relations Association

Directions and Parking

The event will be held at the Varsity Theatre on the Marquette campus, 1324 W. Wisconsin Avenue. Parking is available for a fee in Parking Structure I on 16th Street south of Wells and Parking Structure II on Wells between 12th and 13th Streets.

Upcoming Events

International Restorative Justice Week
November 15-19

November 12

Dead Man Walking. Helfaer Theater, 7:30 p.m. Janine Geske will chair the talk-back segment on the death penalty.

November 15

Journeys of the Heart. A 20-minute documentary narrated by Meryl Streep depicting Marquette Law School's Mediation Clinic and their restorative justice work at Green Bay Correctional Institution. Noon and 7:00 p.m., Marquette Law School. Sponsored by the Public Interest Law Society.

November 16

SBA Brown Bag Luncheon - Victims who have benefited from RJ practices and RJ practitioners will meet with students over lunch.

November 18

Public Interest Law Society (PILS) Annual Thanksgiving dinner from 4:00-7:00 p.m. Before attending Restorative Justice: Victims' Perspectives, stop by Eisenberg Hall, Marquette Law School (3rd floor) for a feast prepared by professors, staff, and students. Tickets are $10 at the door. Proceeds benefit the PILS' Summer Fellowship program.

An Essay Contest will be conducted in local high schools. The topic will be "What is the effect of crime on victims and communities?" There will be five awards of $50 each; the student winners, their parents, and teachers/guidance counselors will be invited to a special event on November 18. The Wisconsin Department of Corrections will be conducting an identical contest with inmates.

Please Join Us

on November 18

This event is offered free of charge.

Please respond by November 10, 2004

Question? Call 414-288-7924 or e-mail: kyle.leighton@marquette.edu

Name/s: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

If Marquette Law graduate, please indicate year: _____

I am unable to attend, but enclosed is a gift for the Restorative Justice Initiative.

Please make checks payable to:
Marquette Law School.

- By mail to Marquette University Law School, Attn: Restorative Justice Initiative
Sensenbrenner Hall
P.O. Box 1881
Milwaukee, WI 53201-1881
- By faxing this completed form to:
414-288-6975

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY
LAW SCHOOL

