

MVLC Student Advisory Board Member: Sadie Olson

SAB Member Sadie Olson is a 2L at Marquette Law School. She studied Anthropology and Art History at Boston University before returning home to Milwaukee, where she spent several years working in sales and distribution for a Milwaukee beer wholesaler. Sadie is now a full-time law student, and you can find her volunteering for the MVLC at the House of Peace on Tuesdays. In her spare time, Sadie enjoys traveling, cooking, walking her dog, and spending time with friends and family.