

MVLC Student Advisory Board Member: Shelly Grasso

SAB Member Shelly Grasso is in her second year at Marquette Law School. Originally from Buzzards Bay, MA, Shelly graduated from Providence College in 2016 with a double major in History and American studies and double minor in sociology and black studies. After law school, she plans to practice criminal law in the District Attorney's office in Massachusetts. Shelly has volunteered with the MVLC and family forms clinic at the MJC and is excited about being an SAB member. In her free time, Shelly loves distance running and watching Dance Moms.
