

MVLC Student Advisory Board Member: Suzanne Caulfield

Suzanne is a part-time student at Marquette University Law School. She balances law school with her full-time job as a Professor of Mathematics. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from the Technological University, Ireland. After two years working in the auto industry in Tokyo, Japan, she immigrated to the U.S. While working in industry, she started her graduate studies at UW-Milwaukee for her M.S. and Ph.D. Suzanne started pro bono work during her first semester in law school. She currently volunteers with the MVLC and Civil Legal Helpline. In summer 2020, she was a summer fellow at the Milwaukee Justice Center, and in summer 2021 she will join the Racine City Attorney's Office as a law clerk. In her spare time, Suzanne read a lot and is an avid cyclist, acting as a USA Cycling official at local and national races.
