Reading Assignments for Orientation Fall 2013

There are required reading assignments for entering, first-year law students that must be completed prior to the first day of Orientation. Those assignments will be posted the first week of August on the Orientation website at:
https://law.marquette.edu/prospective-students/new-student-orientation

The readings will be discussed during the following Orientation sessions:

- Into the Classroom – Session One
- Into the Classroom – Session Two

The Orientation schedule for full-time and part-time day students can be found on the website. The Orientation schedule for part-time evening students can be found on the website.

In early August, the Law School will send an email message about Orientation to your Marquette email address. Be sure to access your account on a regular basis at http://emarq.marquette.edu. You will need your username and password. If you have problems accessing your account, please contact the ITS Help Desk at (414) 288-7799.
