

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

1. Law students will be registering for the spring semester via the University CheckMarq registration system on Monday, November 12 through Wednesday, November 14, 2018. The information contained in this packet will explain the process as it relates to the Law School.
2. In the packet of materials you should find:
 - A schedule of classes for the spring semester. Please note that room assignments will be made after registration
 - A tentative exam schedule for the spring semester
 - The 2018-2019 academic calendar
 - A list of course prerequisites
 - A list of courses required for graduation
 - Information on the spring semester courses that will satisfy the post 1L perspectives, public law, and process elective requirements
 - Information on all courses that will be offered during the Spring Semester (descriptions of both elective and required courses are included)
 - A tentative list of classes for 2019-2020.
3. You may access your registration appointment time through the CheckMarq portal. If you are having trouble accessing CheckMarq, please contact the ITS Help Desk at 414-288-7799. Instructions for using CheckMarq are available through the CheckMarq portal.
4. Please note: students who entered prior to the fall of 2018 (and transfer and visiting students who entered in fall 2018) must register via CheckMarq between Monday, November 12 and Wednesday, November 14, 2018. You may register any time after your appointment time.
5. First-year students who began in the fall of 2018 do not need to register. The law school will handle this for you. You may view your schedule on CheckMarq the week of November 19th. First year sections are assigned and cannot be changed.
6. Enrollment limits for courses are as follows:

Perspectives courses	50
The Law Governing Lawyers	45
Starting & Managing a Law Practice	30
All other general enrollment courses	70
Seminars	16
Workshop – Business Planning	30
Workshop – Advanced Brief Writing	12
Workshop – Negotiation	24
Workshop – Trial Advocacy 2 – Civil Trials	12
Workshop – Trial Advocacy 2 – Criminal Trials	12
All other workshops	16
Advanced Legal Research courses	20

CheckMarq will automatically close a course once the enrollment limit is reached. Third-year students (those with 54 or more credits) have earlier registration times than those with 53 or fewer credits.

Students who are interested in taking limited enrollment courses such as seminars, workshops, and advanced legal research courses should register as soon after their appointment time as possible. The longer you wait, the greater the likelihood that a specific course may be closed.

7. Students who are closed out of courses may complete the waiting list form available on the website (<http://law.marquette.edu/current-students/student-services-forms>) and in Room 238 and submit it to Dean Thomson, either electronically or in Room 238. The deadline for submission is noon on Monday, November 19th. Deans Oldfather and Thomson will develop waiting lists based on the number of credits a student has earned to date. Waiting lists will be posted on the Law School website and students will be notified via their Marquette e-mail if a space becomes available. Do not attempt to use the waiting list function in CheckMarq.
8. Also note Section 700 of the Law School Academic Regulations concerning dropping and adding courses.
9. If you plan to take Directed Research or Graduate Assistant during the spring semester, please complete the appropriate form (available on the website (<http://law.marquette.edu/current-students/student-services-forms>) or in the filing cabinet in Room 238) and send it to Dean Thomson.

COURSE TITLE: COMMUNITY PROSECUTION COURSE #: 7144 701

PROFESSORS: Altenburg, Ladwig and Wesson

DESCRIPTION: In this course, students will examine the shift of American prosecutors away from a response-driven model to an innovative and nationally recognized proactive model focused on preventing crime and increasing quality of life. Prosecutors across the United States are embracing the idea that communities are the central institution for crime prevention, and the success or failure of prosecutors, police, schools, and families are dependent on that community foundation. Community Prosecutors are now asked to use their legal knowledge in the field with police officers, use their communication skills to reach out to community members, use their courtroom and trial skills to prosecute the most violent criminals, and use their creativity to fashion appropriate alternatives to traditional prosecutions.

COURSE TITLE: THE FIRST AMENDMENT COURSE #: 7215 101
PROFESSOR: Rofes
DESCRIPTION: A comprehensive examination of the speech and religion guarantees of the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Insofar as speech is concerned, the course will, among other objectives, (a) explore the principal categories of content-based expression – among them incitement, defamation, obscenity, child pornography, and commercial speech; and (b) probe the special constitutional rules created for distinctive contexts – such as the American public school – in an effort to reconcile the expressive rights of individuals with the responsibility of government to remain an ordered society. Insofar as the Constitution's twin protections for religious liberty are concerned, we will explore a host of anti-establishment and free exercise concerns. On the anti-establishment side, issues will include prayer, moments of silence, and the pledge of allegiance in the nation's public schools; government-sponsored displays of religious significance; and public financial assistance alleged to benefit religion and religious institutions. On the free exercise side, we will examine the constitutional conflict produced when religious practices – among them Sabbath worship, the rejection of compulsory education, animal sacrifice, drug use, and conscientious objection – meet up with the contrary demands of civil society. This examination will culminate in our consideration of the landmark Supreme Court decision construing the free exercise guarantee in a manner alleged to reflect insufficient concern for the practices of minority religions, the effort in Congress to overturn that decision, and ensuing developments.

The course will pause periodically to explore both Wisconsin's contributions to the development of the First Amendment law (for instance, in areas of school choice and crimes of hate) and the ways in which such law plays out on the ground in communities across Wisconsin (e.g., the controversy in Wauwatosa concerning the cross on the municipality's emblem). Satisfies the Law School's public law requirement. Not open to students who have taken Constitutional Law 2: Speech and Equality or Seminar: Advanced Issues in the First Amendment.

COURSE TITLE: CURRENT PROBLEMS IN TORT LAW COURSE #: 7460 101
PROFESSOR: Lemann
DESCRIPTION: Tort law has always grappled with cutting edge issues created by new technologies. In this course we will explore tort law's applicability to several problems that are currently working their way through the tort system in one form or another: liability issues presented by the expected rise of autonomous vehicles, efforts to hold prescription drug manufacturers liable for the opioid epidemic, the use of tort law as a mechanism for addressing harms caused by climate change, litigation against the National Football League relating to the long-term effects caused by concussions, and tort law's response to modern privacy harms that occur online. The course will begin with an exploration of tort theory, designed to expose students to the diverse range of academic approaches to tort law and help develop a deeper understanding of the tort system. We will then move on to a discussion of how tort law can and should (or can't and shouldn't) respond to the various problems listed above. Students will be graded on the basis of class discussion and a final paper.

COURSE TITLE: TRIAL ADVOCACY 1 COURSE #: 7851 703
PROFESSOR: Stingl
DESCRIPTION: This workshop introduces students to the fundamental skills required of trial lawyers, including formulation of a case theory, jury selection, opening statements, direct and cross-examination, and closing argument. Students will engage in simulated practice exercises and the course concludes with a mock trial.
CREDITS: 3
PREREQUISITES: Civil Procedure, Evidence
COURSE STATUS: Workshop
METHOD(S) OF EVALUATION: In-class final trial presentation as well as weekly written assignments, class participation
FACULTY COMMENTS: Each week, there will be written assignments which must be turned in at the beginning of each class. Classes will include in-class presentations by the students of different aspects of a trial. The "final" will be a mock trial.

COURSE TITLE: TRIAL ADVOCACY 2 – CIVIL TRIALS COURSE #: 7852 101
PROFESSOR: Ratzel and Trecek

DESCRIPTION: This course builds on the basic skills introduced in Trial Advocacy 1 and also focuses on jury selection, the use of demonstrative exhibits, and expert testimony.

CREDITS: 3

PREREQUISITES: Trial Advocacy 1

COURSE STATUS: Workshop

METHOD(S) OF EVALUATION: Class presentations, class participation, other - see faculty comments:

FACULTY COMMENTS: The professors run this class as a true workshop. There are weekly opportunities for students to participate in and conduct every aspect of a jury trial, including: jury selection, opening statement, direct and cross examination, admitting exhibits into evidence, and closing statements. The participatory vignettes are done in front of the other students who are allowed to provide their observations and the professors provide their constructive criticism as well. This class is meant to be extremely practical in its focus, and provides the necessary knowledge and experience so that, after taking this class, the students will feel comfortable trying their first case as a practicing attorney. The final examination is a trial, which is typically scheduled the week before finals. The trial typically lasts approximately 6 hours.

COURSE TITLE: TRIAL ADVOCACY 2 – CRIMINAL COURSE #: 7723 101
