CLINICS, JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS AND SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS

2020 SUMMER PROGRAMS

Responding to a substantial expression of interest by students and the successes enjoyed during the last eighteen summer sessions, the Law School will again offer a variety of clinical, judicial internship and supervised fieldwork placements during the 2020 summer session. These are accredited programs and are offered in addition to the array of regular Law School courses scheduled for the summer. The goal is to make these programs as accessible as possible to students who would like to do an internship in addition to any other activities they have planned for the summer. During the 2019 summer session approximately 80 students (including many rising 2Ls) participated in an accredited internship.

Programs that we expect to be available are described in the pages which follow. Once student interest is determined, Professor Hammer will confirm placements and arrangements with each student on an individual basis. The regular summer session tuition ($1,935 per credit) is applicable to these placements.

EARLY PLACEMENT PROCESS

Placements can be arranged at any time between now and the beginning of the summer session. However, Professor Hammer will begin making early placements in March. If you wish to take advantage of early placement, please file the attached application with Faculty Assistant Debbie Moore in Eckstein Hall Suite 453 by 4:00 p.m. on Monday, March 2, 2020. Early placement is highly recommended because most internships fill quickly. For several of our programs we must contend with competition from students attending other law schools who are also seeking summer internship opportunities in the Milwaukee area. Marquette wants to secure as many of these internship placements as possible for MULS students and early placement can accomplish that.

The summer session offers some flexibility for participating students. Placements are not compartmentalized into one of the two summer sessions that are used for other courses. This means that time at the field site can be spread over a longer period of time (May 18 to early August). In most instances scheduling is flexible to accommodate both the agency and the student. Students are expected to be in residence at their internship site for a minimum of eight weeks over the course of the summer. It is expected that interns will start their summer internships during the week of May 18, 2020 when various orientation programs will be scheduled.
New in 2019-2020

The Law School is pleased to announce that the following new placements have recently been added to the internship program. They are listed here with the full details about each new program provided elsewhere in this application packet.

NEW JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS

The Law School welcomes Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Brian Hagedorn to the Judicial Internship Program with our appellate courts. Prior to his 2019 election to the Supreme Court, Justice Hagedorn served as a Wisconsin Court of Appeals judge in District II (Waukesha).

We also welcome Judges M. Joseph Donald and Jeffrey Davis who were recently appointed to the Wisconsin Court of Appeals.

NEW SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS

Governor Tony Evers’ Office of Legal Counsel … The Law School is pleased to have established an internship with Governor Evers’ Office of Legal Counsel. This continues a tradition of placing our students in the Governor’s Office of Legal Counsel that dates back to the administration of Governor James Doyle.

Milwaukee County District Attorney Early Intervention Unit … This placement offers a prosecution experience working with the team of Assistant District Attorneys in the innovative Early Intervention Unit of the District Attorney’s Office. This unit works with offenders who qualify for certain alternatives to criminal prosecution provided that they agree to participate in programming designed to address the underlying causes of their criminal behavior (e.g., substance abuse problems).

Racine County Expansion …

Responding to consistent demand for Student Practice Rule internships, the Law School has established new placements in Racine County, which is located immediately south of Milwaukee County. In the 2020 summer semester new internships will be available in both the Racine County District Attorney’s Office and in the Office of the Wisconsin State Public Defender – Racine Trial Division. These busy offices will offer abundant opportunities for interns to work on a variety of litigation skills. These placements may be particularly attractive to 2L students who hope to participate in the Prosecutor Clinic or Public Defender Clinic in their 3L year and want to get a head start in the field of criminal practice.

Waukesha County Corporation Counsel Child Support Division … Child support is a critical component in family law practice. In this internship students work with Waukesha County Corporation Counsel lawyers in the preparation and filing of motions, orders to show cause, and summonses and petitions to establish or enforce child support orders. They also make court appearances in these cases as authorized under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule.

Bankruptcy Practice Internship … A bankruptcy practice internship has recently been imbedded in the Supervised Fieldwork Program at the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee. Students with an interest in the practice of creditor-debtor law in a setting that involves significant client interaction may find this Legal Aid option particularly attractive. This placement also offers an opportunity to work on innovative litigation involving bankruptcy discharge of student loan debt on the basis of financial hardship.
EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING CREDITS

The Law School’s internship programs (clinics, judicial internships and supervised fieldwork externships) offer multiple opportunities for earning the experiential learning credits that are required of all students who commenced the study of law on and after August 15, 2015. In that regard please note the following passage from Marquette University Law School Academic Regulations § 201(6)(c):

Students commencing the study of law on or after August 15, 2015 must complete a minimum of six credits in experiential courses. Students may satisfy this requirement by completing six or more credits in the following types of courses:

- Advanced Legal Research Courses
- Workshops
- Clinics
- Supervised Field Placements
- Judicial Internships – Appellate
- Judicial Internships – Trial – Federal Trial Courts Only

CREATING YOUR OWN INTERNSHIP

Sometimes a student will arrange to do his/her own summer internship with a court, governmental agency, or nonprofit providing legal services with which the Law School does not have an ongoing clinical arrangement. Some of these may qualify for academic credit if they meet the requirements imposed upon the Law School by its accrediting agencies. You should confer with Prof. Hammer to discuss the availability of credit for such special placements. During the typical summer several MULS students do these special internships for credit (many of which are with courts or governmental agencies in other parts of the country or in Wisconsin locations that are remote from Milwaukee). There is a place on the application form to indicate these special Judicial Internship and Supervised Fieldwork Program placements. Internships for academic credit are not available with for-profit institutions, including private law firms.
CRIMINAL PROCESS PREREQUISITE FOR SUMMER JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS IN THE CRIMINAL COURTS

Summer placements in the criminal trial courts (part of the Judicial Internship program) require completion of the Criminal Process course as a prerequisite for enrollment. Students will be admitted to these placements if they enroll in the Criminal Process course during the first summer session because the course will be concluded in the very early part of any criminal court internship for which it is a prerequisite. Prof. Hammer will also work with the Criminal Process students on an individual basis during the summer to assure their preparedness for their criminal court internships. In recent summers many rising 2Ls with an interest in criminal law have pursued this option. The placements are with the Felony and Misdemeanor Divisions of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court.

CAN YOU PARTICIPATE IN A SUMMER INTERNSHIP AND ALSO PARTICIPATE IN THE SUMMER STUDY PROGRAM IN GIESSEN, GERMANY?

The answer is “yes.” Summer internships require a student to be in residence at his/her internship site for a minimum of 8 weeks. Summer session internships begin during the week of May 18, 2020. Thus, a student could complete his or her internship residency requirement in time to participate in the Law School’s Summer Study Program in Giessen, Germany which begins on July 18, 2020.

PROGRAM PREREQUISITES AND SELECTION CRITERIA

In order to participate in one of the Clinics, Judicial Internships or Supervised Fieldwork Programs, students must be in good academic standing (i.e., not on academic probation) and, for most placements, they must have completed at least 28 credits. A few programs (e.g., District Attorney Offices, Centro Legal, Wisconsin State Public Defender Trial Division, etc.) require that participants be certified for student practice under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule so that they can appear on the record in court. Student practice certification is limited to those who have completed 45 credits (a requirement for student practice licensing).

Many programs also have prerequisites or co-requisites. These requirements are designed to assure that participants have the background necessary for meaningful participation in an internship. Prerequisites and co-requisites are included in the descriptions of placements that follow in this application packet or on the application form itself.

The goal of the placement process is to match applicants with internships in which they have expressed a high priority interest and in which they have the best opportunity for an optimal internship experience. Among the factors considered in the award of placements are the following: the program priorities identified by the applicant on the application form, the applicant’s preparedness for the internship(s) for which he/she has applied (including completion of specified minimum credits, satisfaction of any prerequisites or co-requisites, and overall academic performance to date), the applicant’s proximity to graduation, the opportunity an applicant has already had to participate in an internship and the quality of his/her performance therein, any relevant experiences as revealed on the applicant’s resume, and information provided in the optional personal statement that applicants are invited to furnish with their resumes (see application form for details on how to furnish a personal expression of interest in a particular internship).

DO YOU HAVE TIME TO PARTICIPATE IN A SUMMER INTERNSHIP?

Summer internships are akin to part-time jobs. They take place over a flexible span of time (May through early August). Most are offered for 2 credits and require a time commitment of 120 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks in residence at the internship site. [The limited number of 3-credit internships require a time commitment of 180 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks in residence.] When the math is done, that translates into about 15 hours per week for a 2-credit internship (a few less if time in residence is extended beyond 8 weeks) and 22.5 hours per week for a 3-credit internship (a few less if time in residence is extended beyond 8 weeks). The amount of time devoted to the internship is to be evenly distributed across the weeks in residence such that interns work the same approximate number of hours each and every week. Even though this time commitment is substantial, participating students still have considerable additional time to take another summer session course or to engage in summer employment. The flexibility of summer internships also makes them more accessible to those part-time students who may have a little more “give” in their schedules during the summer. You should carefully note any scheduling advice for particular internships that is included in these application materials.
INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR “RISING 2Ls”

Some internships require specialized training before students are ready to undertake participation in them. Prerequisite courses are examples of such specialized training. However, many judicial internships and supervised fieldwork programs only require completion of 28 credits; those who are just finishing their 1L year thus qualify for these programs.

Many rising 2Ls have successfully participated in judicial internships at the Wisconsin Supreme Court, at the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, at the Civil Division and Felony/Misdemeanor Divisions of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court, and at the federal trial courts (United States District Courts and United States Magistrate Judge Courts). Likewise, many rising 2Ls have been admitted to one of the many Supervised Fieldwork Program internships that do not have specialized requirements beyond completion of the 1L curriculum, e.g., Legal Aid Society, Legal Action of Wisconsin, AIDS Resource Center, Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants, Disability Rights Wisconsin, Wisconsin Department of Justice (Office of the Attorney General), Milwaukee City Attorney's Office, the Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel, and several others.

TRANSACTIONAL LAWYERING

The Law School’s internship programs have traditionally offered multiple opportunities for obtaining practical experience on the “litigation” side of lawyering. The internship program now offers a number of placements that focus more on the “transactional” side of lawyering. Students with an interest in the latter may wish to consider the following placements:

1. Blood Center of Wisconsin Office of Corporate Counsel
2. Marquette Law and Entrepreneurship Clinic
3. Marquette Legal Initiative for Nonprofit Corporations (M-LINC)
4. Marquette University Office of General Counsel
5. Milwaukee City Attorney’s Office (offering opportunities for both transactional and litigation experiences)
6. Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel (offering opportunities for both transactional and litigation experiences)
7. Milwaukee County Economic Development Division
8. Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewerage District Legal Department (available fall & spring terms)
9. South Milwaukee School District
10. Wisconsin Department of Corrections (offering opportunities for both transactional and litigation experiences)
In its statement of institutional learning outcomes, the Law School states among its aspirations that, upon graduation, the Marquette lawyer “will recognize the challenges confronting the poor, marginalized, and under-represented in society, consistent with the Jesuit mission.”¹ The Law School’s program of Clinics and Supervised Fieldwork Programs is designed to strongly support that mission while at the same time providing rich opportunities for students to acquire such vital lawyering skills as client interviewing, fact investigation and analysis, problem solving, written and oral communication, legal research, etc.

The many public interest internships include the following:

1. Marquette Law & Entrepreneurship Clinic
2. Public Defender Clinic
3. Mediation Clinic
4. Unemployment Compensation Clinic
5. Supervised Fieldwork: AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin
6. Supervised Fieldwork: Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants
7. Supervised Fieldwork: Centro Legal
8. Supervised Fieldwork: Disability Rights Wisconsin
9. Supervised Fieldwork: Federal Defender Services of Wisconsin
10. Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Action of Wisconsin
11. Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee
12. Supervised Fieldwork: Marquette Legal Initiative for Nonprofit Corporations (M-LINC)
13. Supervised Fieldwork: MVLC Estate Planning Clinic
14. Supervised Fieldwork: Midwest Environmental Advocates
15. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Appellate Division
16. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Juvenile Division (Milwaukee)
17. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender (Racine and Waukesha Trial Division Offices)

¹ “Learning Outcomes: Marquette University Law School” (adopted by Law Faculty in 2016).
Marquette is fortunate to be located in a state that offers law students an opportunity to work on their litigation skills and to get real courtroom experience while they are still in school. The Wisconsin Student Practice Rule provides that students may make supervised court appearances as part of their internships if they are certified for student practice under the Rule. To qualify for certification, a student must be in good academic standing and must have completed at least 45 law school credits prior to the start of his/her internship. Completion of a student practice internship can be a valuable credential on a student’s resume, especially if the student will be pursuing employment opportunities that involve litigation (either civil or criminal).

Student Practice Rule summer internships at Marquette include the following:

1. Supervised Fieldwork: District Attorney Offices in Racine County, Washington County, Fond du Lac County and Brown County
2. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Trial Division Offices in Racine and Waukesha Counties.
3. Supervised Fieldwork: Centro Legal (handling family law and misdemeanor defense matters)
4. Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society Family and Guardian ad Litem Divisions
5. Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee City Attorney’s Office (prosecuting cases in the Milwaukee Municipal Court)
6. Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel (handling mental health commitments)
7. Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee County District Attorney CHIPS/TPR Unit (handling cases involving abused or neglected children)
8. Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee County District Attorney Early Intervention Unit
9. Supervised Fieldwork: Waukesha County Corporation Counsel Child Support Division
10. Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin State Public Defender Juvenile Division in Milwaukee (handling juvenile delinquency cases)
INTERNERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE PART-TIME STUDENT

The Law School is committed to making its Clinics, Judicial Internships and Supervised Fieldwork Programs broadly available to qualified students, including those in the Part-Time Program. Achieving this goal can be challenging with respect to those part-time evening students who have substantial commitments outside the Law School during normal daytime business hours. Most courts, government agencies, and public interest law offices at which the Law School has established clinical programs close for the day at about the same time part-time students with daytime employment are available to participate in clinical work.

Despite these challenges, there are a number of placements within the clinical program that can accommodate Part-Time Program students who have a little flexibility in their daytime work schedules. The following are recommended for the consideration of those with that flexibility:

- Mediation Clinic
- Judicial Internship: Wisconsin Supreme Court
- Judicial Internship: Wisconsin Court of Appeals
- Judicial Internship: U. S. District Court and U.S. Magistrate Judge Court
- Judicial Internship: Milwaukee County Circuit Court (all divisions)
- Supervised Fieldwork: AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin
- Supervised Fieldwork: Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants
- Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Action of Wisconsin
- Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society
- Supervised Fieldwork: Marquette Legal Initiative for Nonprofit Corporations (M-LINC)
- Supervised Fieldwork: Medical College of Wisconsin Office of Risk Management
- Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel
- Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin National Guard Staff Judge Advocate

Part-time students with questions about these or any other components of the clinical curriculum should see Professor Hammer.
TRAVEL EXPENSES

A few of the internship programs require regular travel to Madison or certain other locations like Waukesha, West Bend, Green Bay and Chicago. To assist students in financing the cost of required travel, the Dean has generously approved a partial mileage reimbursement plan. Details will be provided to those who are selected for participation in these programs.

COMPENSATION

There is no monetary compensation for participation in the programs described in this registration packet.

LIABILITY RELEASE AND WAIVER

The Law School does not require participation in an internship program as a requirement for the award of the Juris Doctor degree. Students thus participate in internships as a voluntary curricular choice.

In order to be placed into an internship an applicant must execute a standard “Liability Release and Waiver” form that has been developed by the Office of General Counsel of Marquette University. A copy of the form is attached to the internship application (see page 46) and must be executed and filed with the application in order for a student to be considered for an internship placement.

Professor Hammer
LAW AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP CLINIC
(3 CREDITS)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 2, 2020
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

The Marquette Law and Entrepreneurship Clinic will operate as a full-service summer clinic during the 2020 summer session. Under the leadership of the clinic director, Professor Nathan Hammons, the clinic provides pro bono legal services to startup businesses and entrepreneurs in southeast Wisconsin with a focus on clients who lack access to the traditional legal marketplace. Students participate under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule to counsel clients on transactional matters, such as business entity selection and formation, corporate governance, funding, business contracts, employment issues, licenses and permits, basic intellectual property matters, and real estate. The clinic is designed to advance Marquette University’s mission of fostering personal and professional excellence, developing ethical and informed leaders, and service to others.

The clinic will operate for 9 weeks in the 2020 summer session commencing during the week of May 18, 2020. During the program students will meet with, interview, and provide transactional legal services to clients under the supervision of the clinic’s director or local attorneys who are assisting the clinic. The clinic is physically located in offices at the Law School.

Students will also meet weekly in a classroom setting at a time to be determined in consultation with the participants. During that time they will receive practical skills training and instruction in substantive legal areas. Topics will include client interviewing and counseling, document drafting, business negotiations, governmental filings, legal research and writing, issue spotting, client risk management, and law practice management. Students will also engage in “case rounds” (discussions about active client matters).

Credits: 3
Time Commitment: 120 hours (not including the classroom component), spread over the course of 9 weeks
Graded: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
Prerequisite: Business Associations
Prerequisite or Summer Term Co-Requisite: Law Governing Lawyers
Limited to students who have completed 45 credits (a Wisconsin Student Practice Rule Requirement)

LEC Clinic Note #1: The clinic will strongly prefer students who have completed at least one course (in addition to Business Associations) in an applicable substantive area (e.g., business planning, commercial law, contract drafting, corporate finance, employment law, federal taxation, intellectual property, real estate law, or securities regulation).

LEC Clinic Note #2: Students who participate in the summer LEC clinic are not eligible to participate in the LEC clinic that will operate during the 2020-2021 academic year.
MEDIATION CLINIC
(2 CREDITS)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 2, 2020
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

In the Small Claims Pro Se Litigant Mediation Clinic, second and third year law students mediate actual civil cases in the Milwaukee County Circuit Court Small Claims Division. Under the supervision of an experienced mediator, students serve as third party neutrals in real cases in which the parties are not represented by counsel. The Clinic meets from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Milwaukee County Courthouse for nine Mondays beginning on May 18, 2020 and concluding on July 27, 2020. It does not meet on May 25 (Memorial Day) or on July 13 (opening day of Democratic National Convention). All students in the Clinic must participate in a weekend of mediation training at the beginning of the internship on May 29, 30 & 31, 2020.

The mediation clinical experience gives students the opportunity to develop listening and problem-solving skills as well as the opportunity to work directly with persons facing a variety of legal, social, and economic problems. Students also gain experience in handling difficult parties in a mediation setting. The clinic is designed to advance Marquette University’s Jesuit mission of service to those in need by assisting small claims litigants who are struggling without professional representation in court.

The learning objectives of the Mediation Clinic include:

- Understanding the dynamics that lead to conflicts;
- Understanding alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes;
- Understanding how ADR processes work in the court system;
- Understanding one’s own conflict style and listening style;
- Developing enhanced communication and active listening skills;
- Facilitating negotiations and building advanced negotiation skills;
- Developing and implementing problem-solving strategies;
- Working directly with pro se litigants to resolve conflicts.

Enrollment is limited to students who have completed 28 credits.
Prerequisites: None.
Graded: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
The Prosecutor Clinic, Public Defender Clinic, and the Unemployment Compensation Clinic do not operate during the summer session. They will resume operations during the 2020 fall semester.
JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS

Judicial Internship programs are grouped into two categories: Appellate Courts and Trial Courts. Each of these popular programs offers students an opportunity to participate in the work of the judiciary through assignment to a specific appellate or trial court chambers. For those who might consider clerking after graduation, this is an opportunity to get a glimpse at what clerking entails; this is especially true in the appellate court programs and in the federal trial court programs. For others, the chance to be a working member of a court staff and to observe first-hand the business of judging can be an invaluable educational experience that helps prepare them to function effectively in the courts as practicing lawyers.

There is a classroom component to the judicial internship programs that will meet several times during the summer to cover material relevant to the work of judicial interns. These meetings will be scheduled once participating students have been identified. They will not overlap with any regularly scheduled summer session classes.

A student may participate in both the Appellate Courts program and the Trial Courts program, though not at the same time.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
OF THE JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

While the experience of each judicial intern will vary depending upon the type of court in which the student works and the judge/justice to whom the student is assigned, the Judicial Internship Program is intended to afford each of its participants the following educational opportunities:

- Exposure to new substantive areas of the law (or exposure to familiar areas of substantive law but at a more sophisticated level)
- An understanding of the court system in which the student works and the procedures utilized to advance cases through that system
- An immersion in the law of procedure (civil, criminal or appellate)
- Refinement of legal research skills
- Enhancement of legal writing skills
- Exposure to the process of judicial decision-making and an understanding of those attributes of effective lawyering that materially advance the position of litigants before the court
JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP: APPELLATE COURTS
(2 credits)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 2, 2020
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

For the 2020 summer session appellate internships are available with several Justices of the Wisconsin Supreme Court and with the judges of District I (Milwaukee) and District II (Waukesha) of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals.

Credits: 2
Duration of Internship: One Semester
Time Commitment: 120 Hours (including time spent in the class meetings)
Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
Prerequisite: Civil Procedure
Limited to students who have completed 28 credits.

Special Notes on Appellate Court Placements

(a) Wisconsin Supreme Court. The summer session of the Judicial Internship at the Wisconsin Supreme Court spans two phases of the Court’s annual schedule. During the early weeks of the summer session the interns may assist the Justices and their law clerks in the substantial work of completing the Court’s written decisions that will be released before (or shortly after) the term of the Court concludes at the end of June. Once work on the opinions for the concluding term is finished, the interns refocus their attention to helping the Justices prepare for oral arguments that will take place when a new term of the Court begins in August; the interns in this phase of their internship typically research and write bench memoranda for their assigned Justices. Most Justices expect their interns to be present at the Court in Madison once per week.

Notes: (1) A student participating in the Wisconsin Supreme Court judicial internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position. (2) Because much of the student work in this program may be done locally, several part-time students have successfully participated in the Supreme Court Judicial Internship.
(b) Wisconsin Court of Appeals. This internship is principally a legal analysis and writing experience, as students generally work on draft opinions for the judges, although other research assignments and technical work on the court’s opinions may also be given. As in the Supreme Court internships, the intern’s principal contact is the judge’s law clerk. Placements are available with District I and District II of the court. Because so much of this internship involves working on court opinions for which access to the trial court record is essential, much of the intern’s work will be done at the court’s chambers where the trial court record is located. (District I is located in the Plaza East office tower at 330 East Kilbourn Avenue in downtown Milwaukee; District II is located just off the Highway T exit of I-94 in Waukesha County.)

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP: TRIAL COURTS

(2 credits²)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 2, 2020

STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

In the summer edition of the Judicial Internship: Trial Courts program, students intern with a Milwaukee County Circuit Court judge, a United States District Judge, a United States Magistrate Judge, or a United States Bankruptcy Court Judge.

Credits: 2 (except that 3 credits are allocated to the internship at the Chambers of U.S. District Judge Conley in Madison)

Time Commitment: 120 Hours (including time spent in the class meetings), except that 180 hours are required for the 3-credit internship at Judge Conley’s Chambers

Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Limited to students who have completed 28 credits.

Note: Prerequisites for specific trial court placements are noted on the application form.

² Three credits are allocated to the judicial internship at the Chambers of U.S. District Judge William Conley who sits in Madison. Two credits are allocated to all other trial court judicial internships.
Special Notes on Trial Court Placements

United States District Courts. For the 2020 summer term, federal trial court placements will be available with United States District Judges for the Eastern District of Wisconsin with chambers either in Milwaukee or, in the case of Judge William Griesbach, in Green Bay. A summer internship will also be available with Judge William M. Conley who presides in the Western District of Wisconsin (Chambers in Madison).

Note: A student participating in a United States District Court internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position.

Special note regarding the placement with Judge Griesbach: Though judicial interns in this program will need to meet periodically with the judge and his staff in Green Bay (normally at least once per week), the research and writing assignments that are a major component of this internship can be done locally. Judge Griesbach is very understanding about the travel aspects of this internship and is generous in the time he spends with students when they are in chambers.

Special note regarding the placement with Judge Conley: Interns for Judge Conley earn 3 academic credits. They must be physically present to work in Chambers (located in Madison) three days per week. The time commitment is 180 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks.

Internships with the federal trial courts are principally research and writing experiences. Students work on opinions and orders and they perform such other research as may requested by the judge and the judge’s clerks. They also observe proceedings in the courtroom when the judge is on the bench and proceedings in chambers when invited to do so. This internship is an excellent introduction to the workings of the federal district courts.

United States Magistrate Judge Court. A summer session internship will be available with the United States Magistrate Judges for the Eastern District of Wisconsin with chambers in Milwaukee. In the federal system magistrate judges hear civil cases (including jury trials) with the consent of the parties, conduct preliminary proceedings in criminal cases (initial appearances, bail hearings, pretrial motion hearings, etc.), handle certain administrative agency appeals, and provide such other assistance to the district judges as authorized by law (including mediation services). Interns typically work with both the judge and the judge’s law clerk(s). The work includes both legal analysis and writing as well as courtroom/chambers observations. Note: A student participating in this federal judicial internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position.

United States Bankruptcy Court. In this program students attend courtroom hearings, chambers proceedings, and Sec. 341 hearings before the U.S. Trustee. They also perform such research and writing on issues in bankruptcy law as may assigned by the court. This internship is particularly useful for those with an interest in creditor-debtor law. There is typically a considerable opportunity to discuss the cases with the judge. Note: A student participating in this federal judicial internship may not simultaneously be employed in a law-related position.

Wisconsin Circuit Courts. Placements in state trial courts are ordinarily with judges of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court. With the exception of Children’s Court judges whose courts and chambers are located in Wauwatosa, all of the state court judges are located within two blocks of the Law School. Internship placements in the state circuit court will be available in the following specialized divisions of the circuit court: Civil, Felony, Misdemeanor, Children’s (where juvenile delinquency cases and cases involving abused/neglected children are heard), and Family (primarily divorce cases).

Preparation for Prosecutor and Public Defender Clinics:

Students who intend to apply for positions in the Prosecutor Clinic and in the Public Defender Clinic will find that participation in a Judicial Internship in the Felony or Misdemeanor Division of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court is a great way to transition into the local criminal justice system and to prepare for a successful internship in the Milwaukee County District Attorney’s Office or in the Office of the Wisconsin State Public Defender Trial Division. Many alums of the Prosecutor and Public Defender Clinics successfully employed this strategy.

Circuit Court internships are not principally legal analysis and legal writing experiences, but rather are opportunities to develop litigation skills by active observation of proceedings in the courtroom and judge’s chambers. The judges who participate in this program are generous in spending time with their interns to discuss the matters on the court’s docket and the proceedings observed by the students, such as motion hearings, pretrial conferences, trials to the court or jury, etc. Some research and writing may be involved, depending upon the judge and the division in which the student works. In the Circuit Court program placements are made according to the preferences expressed on the application form, e.g., Felony Division, Misdemeanor Division, Civil Division, Family Division, Children’s Division, etc.

Scheduling Note for Circuit Court Internships: Circuit Court internships are most valuable if a student is available to be at the court in 2-3 hour blocks of time. This allows for meaningful opportunities to observe court proceedings and those that occur in chambers. Circuit Courts tend to have busier and more interesting calendars in the early part of the week; in many branches the Friday calendar can be somewhat light. Thus, Fridays should ordinarily be avoided. For those interested in clerking with the Civil Division, it should be noted that most Civil Division judges hear motions on Monday mornings; it is particularly useful for students to be available at that time because much of their work involves motions and this is the time when those motions are litigated. Most circuit courts are closed each day between 12:00 noon and 1:30 p.m. for lunch.

Note: Although most placements in the circuit court program are with judges in Milwaukee County, a student could also arrange for such a trial court internship with a judge in another jurisdiction subject to the approval of Professor Hammer. If you are interested in an out-of-town circuit court placement, please see Prof. Hammer.

“Wisconsin Judicial System Summer Law Student Internship Program”

SPECIAL NOTE: Students may have received information from the Marquette Office of Career Planning or elsewhere about the “Wisconsin Judicial System 2020 Volunteer Summer Law Student Internship Program.” This program, which is coordinated through the Supreme Court’s Office of Court Operations, is NOT part of the MULS summer judicial internship program. However, students who participate in one of these volunteer placements (which are not limited to Milwaukee County circuit courts) may qualify for academic credit if they enroll in the Law School’s summer judicial internship program, attend meetings of the judicial internship class, file all time and activity reports and evaluation paperwork required by MULS, and otherwise meet MULS program criteria. See Professor Hammer with any questions about obtaining academic credit for participation in the volunteer program. It is not necessary to enroll in the Wisconsin Judicial System volunteer summer program in order to participate in the Law School’s summer judicial internship program; the Law School has its own process for placing judicial interns in the state trial courts with judges who are regular participants in the Marquette program.
SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS
(2 credits unless noted otherwise)

The Supervised Fieldwork Program was established by action of the Law School faculty in January, 1986. It is designed to offer students an opportunity for experiential learning in a wide variety of governmental agencies and in public interest organizations that provide legal services to those who are poor, marginalized, or otherwise underrepresented in society. Students work under guidance from agency lawyers and under the general supervision of faculty members. The program is designed to provide practical learning experiences in virtually every area of law practice.

In contemporary legal education there is a significant emphasis on what is known as experiential learning. The legal profession expects that law school graduates will have already made substantial progress in the acquisition of critical lawyering skills. At Marquette the opportunity for skills development occurs in multiple venues. One of those venues is the workshop curriculum. Another is the Supervised Fieldwork Program. In Supervised Fieldwork there are abundant opportunities (depending upon the particular program) for the acquisition of such critical skills as interviewing and counseling, fact investigation and analysis, problem solving, written and oral communication, dispute resolution, litigation advocacy, time and project management, legal research, etc. Importantly, the Supervised Fieldwork intern develops these skills in authentic settings: they are working on real cases involving real people under the direct supervision of practicing lawyers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
OF THE SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAM

While the experience of each Supervised Fieldwork Program intern will vary depending upon the nature of his/her placement, it is nonetheless possible to articulate the following statement of educational objectives that are generally applicable in every internship setting. It is anticipated that each intern will have the opportunity for:

- Exposure to new substantive areas of the law (or exposure to familiar areas of substantive law but at a more sophisticated level)
- An immersion in the law of procedure and in the legal and organizational processes employed by the agency to accomplish its work
- The acquisition of specific lawyering skills that are relevant to the particular internship and which are articulated at the outset and measured throughout the internship
- The development of the habit of reflection and continuous self-assessment of the intern’s professional growth
• The acquisition of time management and planning skills

• The assessment of one’s ability to work effectively in the legal profession and the development of one’s confidence in his/her ability to do so

• The identification of ethical issues that arise in the internship setting and the methods for resolving those issues

General Requirements of the Supervised Fieldwork Program

Credits: 2 (unless noted otherwise)
Duration of Internship: One Semester
Time Commitment: 120 hours for 2-credit internships; 180 hours for 3-credit internships; 240 hours for 4-credit internships

The Department’s General Counsel is responsible for providing legal advice to the Department’s leadership. General Counsel also serves as the credentialing and disciplinary authority for credentials regulated by the Department. As a result, he determines whether to grant or deny credentials and whether any proposed disciplinary action is appropriate. General Counsel also oversees all open records requests and represents the Department in suits brought against the Department.

The Division of Legal Services and Compliance serves as the prosecutorial arm of the Department. Upon receipt of a complaint regarding a credential holder (or the opening of a case by the Division), the Division conducts an investigation into the alleged unprofessional conduct and, when warranted, takes action to discipline the credential holder’s license. Disciplinary action can range from a public reprimand to revocation of the credential. Hearings in contested cases are held before a state administrative law judge.

A student in this internship will report directly to the Department’s General Counsel and can expect to be assigned a variety of legal issues/projects that will involve legal research and writing, interpreting statutes and codes related to the enforcement of discipline imposed on licensed individuals, etc. There may also be opportunities to work on matters in litigation involving actions against the licenses of medical and business professionals. Prerequisites: None.

Wisconsin Elections Commission. The Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC) was created by 2015 Wisconsin Act 118 and beginning on June 30, 2016 is responsible for the administration and enforcement of Wisconsin elections law. More information about new Elections Commission may be found at http://elections.wi.gov.

In this internship students will work with and under the direct supervision of the WEC Commissioner Mark L. Thomsen (Marquette Law 1987) and other WEC staff members on a variety of legal issues related to election law, voting rights, and election complaints. There will be opportunities for legal research (with a special emphasis on legislative and administrative law materials), document drafting and review, participation in WEC staff meetings, and attendance at Commission meetings. Prerequisites: None.

Scheduling Notes for Wisconsin Elections Commission:

1. WEC Commissioner Thomsen maintains his office in downtown Milwaukee.

It is comprised of three lawyers and a legal assistant. The Office is responsible for counseling the Governor and his staff on any legal issues that may arise. Attorneys analyze pending legislation, draft executive orders, respond to open record requests, monitor developments within the legal community, and provide legal analysis and guidance on a wide range of issues that come to the Governor's attention.

In this internship students assist the lawyers in the Office of Legal Counsel and help them carry out their duties. They will have an opportunity to do research and provide analysis on a wide range of important legal and policy issues. Prerequisites: None.

This is a particularly informative opportunity for the interns at WILL to participate in case analysis and strategy. Fridays should be avoided at WILL.
Wisconsin National Guard Staff Judge Advocate. The lawyers at the Wisconsin National Guard Staff Judge Advocate provide a variety of legal services to military personnel and legal advice to the military service as well. In this internship students work with these lawyers on such matters as estate planning (including wills and powers of attorney), family law issues, landlord-tenant matters, assertion of rights under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act and the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, etc. There may also be the opportunity to work on disciplinary proceedings. There is a considerable research component to this internship as well as opportunities for client interaction and document drafting. For purposes of the circuit court litigation, students may be permitted to make certain on-the-record appearances under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule (assuming consent of the court, the supervising attorney and the client). Prerequisites: Criminal Law, Criminal Process, Evidence, and Constitutional Criminal Procedure. Prerequisite or Co-requisite: Law Governing Lawyers. Appellate Writing and Advocacy is preferred but not required. Limited to students who have completed 45 credits (a Student Practice Rule requirement).

No credit is awarded unless both semesters of the program are completed.

Wisconsin State Public Defender Juvenile Division (Milwaukee County). The Juvenile Division of the State Public Defender in Milwaukee handles a wide variety of cases. Public defenders in this office represent children over the age of twelve in child welfare and juvenile delinquency cases as well as adults in termination of parental rights and mental health commitment cases.

In this Student Practice Rule internship the student can expect to develop pre-trial and trial advocacy skills. The student will report to the Children’s Court Center in Wauwatosa and assist the public defenders in legal research and writing assignments, client interviews, and court hearings. The student can expect to observe and participate in hearings involved in the full course of a delinquency or child welfare case. Thus, the student will be exposed to pre-trial
