MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

CLINICS, JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS AND SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS

2012 SUMMER PROGRAMS

Responding to a substantial expression of interest by students and the successes enjoyed during the last ten summer sessions, the Law School will again offer a variety of clinical, judicial internship and supervised fieldwork placements during the 2012 summer session. These are accredited programs and are offered in addition to the array of regular Law School courses scheduled for the summer. The goal is to make these programs as accessible as possible to students who would like to do an internship in addition to any other activities they have planned for the summer. During the 2011 summer session approximately 90 students participated in an internship.

Programs that we expect to be available are described in the pages which follow. Once student interest is determined, I will confirm placements and arrangements with each student on an individual basis. The regular summer session tuition ($1,165 per credit) is applicable to these placements.

EARLY PLACEMENT PROCESS

Placements can be arranged at any time between now and the beginning of the summer session. However, I will begin making early placements during the week of March 19, 2012. If you wish to take advantage of early placement, please file the attached application with Faculty Assistant Debbie Moore in Eckstein Hall Suite 453 by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 6, 2012. Early placement is recommended because most internships fill quickly. For several of our programs we must contend with competition from students attending other law schools who are also seeking summer internship opportunities in the Milwaukee area. Marquette wants to secure as many of these internship placements as possible for MULS students and early placement can accomplish that.
The summer session offers some flexibility for participating students. Placements need not be compartmentalized into one of the two summer sessions that are used for other courses. This means that time at the field site can be spread over a longer period of time (May 21 to August 3). This may be particularly helpful for part-time students. In most instances scheduling is flexible to accommodate both the agency and the student. Students are expected to be in residence at their internship site for a minimum of eight weeks over the course of the summer. It is expected that most interns will start their summer internships during the week of May 21.

New in 2012:

The Law School is pleased to announce that several new internships have been added to the curriculum. They are listed here with the full details about each new program provided elsewhere in this application packet.

NEW SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS

Milwaukee City Attorney’s Office … an internship with lawyers representing the City of Milwaukee designed for students with a particular interest in civil litigation.

Milwaukee County District Attorney CHIPS/TPR Unit … a placement for those with an interest in protecting children found in abusive or neglectful situations.

Sheboygan County District Attorney and Washington County District Attorney … internships for those looking to gain courtroom experience prosecuting criminal cases in mid-sized communities.

Wisconsin State Public Defender Juvenile Division (Milwaukee) … an opportunity to work with Assistant State Public Defenders who represent children over the age of twelve in child welfare and juvenile delinquency cases as well as adults in termination of parental rights and mental health commitment cases.

Student Practice Rule Internships (limited to students who have completed 45 credits and who thus are qualified under the Rule to make supervised court appearances)
Creating Your Own Internship. Sometimes a student will arrange to do his/her own summer internship with a court, governmental agency, or nonprofit providing legal services with which the Law School does not have an ongoing clinical arrangement. Some of these may qualify for academic credit if they meet the requirements imposed upon the Law School by its accrediting agencies. You should confer with Prof. Hammer to discuss the availability of credit for such special placements. During the typical summer several MULS students do these special internships for credit (many of which are with courts or governmental agencies in other parts of the country or in Wisconsin locations that are remote from Milwaukee). There is a place on the application form to indicate these special Judicial Internship and Supervised Fieldwork Program placements. Internships for academic credit are not available with for-profit institutions, including private law firms.

CRIMINAL PROCESS PREREQUISITE FOR CERTAIN PLACEMENTS

Summer placements in the criminal courts (part of the Judicial Internship program) require completion of the Criminal Process course as a prerequisite for enrollment. I will admit students to these placements if they enroll in the Criminal Process course during the first summer session because the course will be concluded in the very early part of any internship for which it is a prerequisite. I will also work with the Criminal Process students on an individual basis during the summer to assure their preparedness for their criminal court internships.

CAN YOU PARTICIPATE IN A SUMMER INTERNSHIP AND ALSO PARTICIPATE IN THE SUMMER STUDY PROGRAM IN GIESSEN, GERMANY?

The answer is “yes.” Summer internships require a student to be in residence at his/her internship site for a minimum of 8 weeks. Summer session internships can begin as early as the week of May 21, 2012. Thus, a student could complete his or her internship residency requirement in time to participate in the Law School’s Summer Study Program in Giessen, Germany which begins on July 14, 2012.
PROGRAM PREREQUISITES AND SELECTION CRITERIA

In order to participate in one of the Clinics, Judicial Internships or Supervised Fieldwork Programs, students must be in good academic standing (i.e., not on academic probation) and, for most placements, they must have completed at least 27 credits. A few programs (e.g., District Attorney Offices, Centro Legal, Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel and Waukesha County Corporation Counsel) require that participants be certified for student practice under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule so that they can appear on the record in court. Student practice certification is limited to those who have completed 45 credits (a requirement for student practice licensing).

Most programs also have prerequisites or co-requisites. These requirements are designed to assure that participants have the background necessary for meaningful participation in an internship. Prerequisites and co-requisites are included in the descriptions of placements that follow in this application packet.

The goal of the placement process is to match applicants with internships in which they have expressed a high priority interest and in which they have the best opportunity for an optimal internship experience. Among the factors considered in the award of placements are the following: the program priorities identified by the applicant on the application form, the applicant’s preparedness for the internship(s) for which he/she has applied (including completion of specified minimum credits, satisfaction of any prerequisites or co-requisites, and overall academic performance to date), the applicant’s proximity to graduation, the opportunity an applicant has already had to participate in an internship and the quality of his/her performance therein, any relevant experiences as revealed on the applicant’s resume, and information provided in the optional personal statement that applicants are invited to furnish with their resumes (see application form for details on how to furnish a personal expression of interest in a particular internship).

DO YOU HAVE TIME TO PARTICIPATE IN A SUMMER INTERNSHIP?

Summer internships are akin to part-time positions. They take place over a flexible span of time (May through August) and most require a time commitment of 120 hours spread over the course of at least 8 weeks in residence at the internship site. When the math is done, that translates into about 15 hours per week (a few less if time in residence is extended beyond 8 weeks). Participating students thus have considerable additional time to take another summer session course or to engage in summer employment. The flexibility of summer internships also makes them more accessible to those part-time students who have a little more “give” in their schedules during the summer.
INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR “RISING 2Ls”

Some internships require specialized training before students are ready to undertake participation in them. Prerequisite courses are examples of such specialized training. However, many judicial internships and supervised fieldwork programs only require completion of 27 credits; those who are just finishing their 1L year thus qualify for these programs.

Many rising 2Ls have successfully participated in judicial internships at the Wisconsin Supreme Court, at the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, and at the Civil Division of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court. Likewise many rising 2Ls have been admitted to one of the many Supervised Fieldwork Program internships that do not have specialized requirements beyond completion of the 1L curriculum, e.g., Legal Aid Society, Legal Action of Wisconsin, AIDS Resource Center, Wisconsin Department of Justice, Milwaukee City Attorney’s Office, Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel, and several others.

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE PART-TIME STUDENT

The Law School is committed to making its Clinics, Judicial Internships and Supervised Fieldwork Programs broadly available to qualified students, including those in the Part-Time Program. Achieving this goal can be challenging with respect to those part-time evening students who have substantial commitments outside the Law School during normal daytime business hours. Most courts, government agencies, and public interest law offices at which the Law School has established clinical programs close for the day at about the same time part-time students with daytime employment are available to participate in clinical work.

Despite these challenges, there are a number of placements within the clinical program that can accommodate Part-Time Program students who have a little flexibility in their daytime work schedules. The following are recommended for the consideration of those with that flexibility:

- Mediation Clinic
- Judicial Internship: Wisconsin Supreme Court
- Judicial Internship: Wisconsin Court of Appeals
- Judicial Internship: U. S. District Court (Judge Griesbach in Green Bay)
- Supervised Fieldwork: AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin
- Supervised Fieldwork: Disability Rights Wisconsin
- Supervised Fieldwork: Legal Aid Society
- Supervised Fieldwork: Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel
- Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin Department of Justice (Attorney General) Legal Services Unit
- Supervised Fieldwork: Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources
Part-time students with questions about these or any other components of the clinical curriculum should see Professor Hammer.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

A few of the internship programs require regular travel to Madison or certain other locations like Waukesha, Green Bay and Chicago. To assist students in financing the cost of required travel, the Dean has generously approved a partial mileage reimbursement plan. Details will be provided to those who are selected for participation in these programs.

COMPENSATION

There is no monetary compensation for participation in the programs described in this registration packet. The American Bar Association, which is the Law School’s accrediting agency, strictly prohibits monetary compensation for activities for which academic credit is awarded.

LIABILITY RELEASE AND WAIVER

The Law School does not require participation in an internship program as a requirement for the award of the Juris Doctor degree. Students thus participate in internships as a voluntary curricular choice.

In order to be placed into an internship an applicant must execute a standard “Liability Release and Waiver” form that has been developed by the Office of General Counsel of Marquette University. A copy of the form is attached to the internship application (see page 31) and must be executed and filed with the application in order for a student to be considered for an internship placement.

Professor Hammer
MEDIATION CLINIC
(2-3 CREDITS)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 6, 2012
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

In the Small Claims Pro Se Litigant Mediation Clinic, second and third year law students mediate actual civil cases in the Milwaukee County Circuit Court Small Claims Division. Under the supervision of an experienced mediator, students serve as third party neutrals in real cases in which the parties are not represented by counsel. The Clinic meets on Monday mornings from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Milwaukee County Courthouse.

The mediation clinical experience gives students the opportunity to develop listening and problem-solving skills as well as the opportunity to work directly with persons facing a variety of legal, social, and economic problems. Students also gain experience in handling difficult parties in a mediation setting. The clinic is designed to advance Marquette University’s Jesuit mission of service to those in need by assisting small claims litigants who are struggling without professional representation in court.

Graded: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory.

This course may be taken for a second time with the permission of Professor Hammer. A student will earn 2 credits if s/he is taking this course for a second time. Otherwise the student will earn 3 credits and must participate in a weekend of mediation training at the beginning of the summer session on dates to be announced.

Enrollment is limited to students who have completed 27 credits.
JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 6, 2012
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

Judicial Internship Programs are grouped into two categories: Appellate Courts and Trial Courts. Each offers students an opportunity to participate in the work of the judiciary through assignment to a specific appellate or trial court chambers. For those who might consider clerking after graduation, this is an opportunity to have a glimpse of what clerking entails; this is especially true in the appellate court programs. For others, the chance to be a working member of a court staff and to observe first-hand the business of judging can be a worthy educational experience that helps prepare them to function effectively in the courts as practicing lawyers.

There is a classroom component to the judicial internship programs that will meet several times during the summer to cover material relevant to the work of judicial interns. These meetings will be scheduled once participating students have been identified. They typically take place during the noon hour.

A student may participate in both the Appellate Courts program and the Trial Courts program, though not at the same time.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
OF THE JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

While the experience of each judicial intern will vary depending upon the type of court in which the student works and the judge/justice to whom the student is assigned, the Judicial Internship Program is intended to afford each of its participants the following educational opportunities:

- Exposure to new substantive areas of the law (or exposure to familiar areas of substantive law but at a more sophisticated level)
- An understanding of the court system in which the student works and the procedures utilized to advance cases through that system
- An immersion in the law of procedure (civil, criminal or appellate)
- Refinement of legal research skills
- Enhancement of legal writing skills
- Exposure to the process of judicial decision-making and an understanding of those attributes of effective lawyering that materially advance the position of litigants before the court
JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP: APPELLATE COURTS
(2 credits)

For the 2012 summer session appellate internships are available with several Justices of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, and with the judges of District I (Milwaukee) and District II (Waukesha) of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. There is also one position available at the headquarters of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in Chicago.

Credits: 2
Duration of Internship: One Semester
Time Commitment: 120 Hours (including time spent in the classroom component)
Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
Prerequisite: Civil Procedure
Limited to students who have completed 27 credits.

Special Notes on Appellate Court Placements

(a) Judicial Internship at the Headquarters of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. In this placement students intern at the headquarters of the Seventh Circuit in downtown Chicago. They are supervised by the attorney who serves as Counsel to the Circuit Executive. Duties include screening new appeals for federal appellate and subject matter jurisdiction and researching jurisdictional issues, attending oral arguments at the Court, observing the mediation program in the Court’s Settlement Unit, and assisting with such other research projects as may be assigned by the supervising attorney or one of the Court’s staff attorneys. In order to maximize the benefits of this internship, the student must be able to spend one day per week at the Court’s headquarters in downtown Chicago (a short walking distance from the Amtrak Station). Any day of the week works well for this purpose as the Court is fully operational Monday through Friday and hears oral arguments on each day of the week. Faculty Supervisor: Prof. Hammer

(b) Wisconsin Supreme Court. The summer session of the Judicial Internship at the Wisconsin Supreme Court spans two phases of the Court’s annual schedule. During the early weeks of the summer session the interns assist the Justices and their law clerks in the substantial work of completing the Court’s written decisions that will be released before (or shortly after) the term of the Court concludes at the end of June. Once work on the opinions for the concluding term are finished, the interns refocus their attention to helping the Justices prepare for oral arguments that will take place when a new term of the Court begins in August; the interns in this phase of their internship typically research and write bench memoranda for their assigned Justices. Note: Because so much of the student work in this program may be done locally, several part-time students have successfully participated in the Supreme Court Judicial Internship. Faculty Supervisor: Prof. Hammer.

(c) Wisconsin Court of Appeals. This internship is principally a legal analysis and writing experience, as students generally work on draft opinions for the judges, although other research assignments and technical work on the court’s opinions may be given. The intern’s principal contact is the judge’s law clerk. Placements are available with District I and District II of the court. Because so much of this internship involves working on court opinions, much of the intern’s work will be done at the court’s chambers. (District I is located at 7th and Wisconsin in Milwaukee; District II is located just off the Highway T exit of I-94 in Waukesha County.) Faculty supervisor: Prof. Hammer.

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP: TRIAL COURTS
(2 credits)

EARLY APPLICATION BY MARCH 6, 2012
STRONGLY RECOMMENDED

In the summer edition of the Judicial Internship: Trial Courts program, students intern with a Milwaukee County Circuit Court judge, a United States District Judge, a United States Magistrate Judge, or a United States Bankruptcy Court Judge.

Credits: 2
Time Commitment: 120 Hours (including time spent in the classroom component)
Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
Limited to students who have completed 27 credits.
Faculty Supervisor: Professor Hammer

Note: Prerequisites for specific trial court placements are noted on the application form.
Special Notes on Trial Court Placements

United States District Courts.  For the 2012 summer term, federal trial court placements will be available with United States District Judges for the Eastern District of Wisconsin with chambers either in Milwaukee or, in the case of Judge William Griesbach, in Green Bay. A summer internship will also be available with Judge William M. Conley who presides in the Western District of Wisconsin (Chambers in Madison).

Special note regarding the placement with Judge Griesbach: Though judicial interns in this program will need to meet periodically with the judge and his staff in Green Bay (normally at least once per week), the research and writing assignments that are a major component of this internship can be done locally. Judge Griesbach is very understanding about the travel aspects of this internship and is generous in the time he spends with students when they are in chambers.

Special note regarding the placement with Judge Conley: Interns for Judge Conley should plan to report to the Court in Madison at least twice per week throughout the course of their internship.

Internships with the federal trial courts are principally research and writing experiences. Students work on opinions and orders and they perform such other research as may requested by the judge and the judge’s clerks. They also observe proceedings in the courtroom when the judge is on the bench and proceedings in chambers when invited to do so. This internship is an excellent introduction to the workings of the federal district courts.

United States Magistrate Judge Court. A summer session internship will be available with the United States Magistrate Judges for the Eastern District of Wisconsin with chambers in Milwaukee. In the federal system magistrate judges hear civil cases (including jury trials) with the consent of the parties, conduct preliminary proceedings in criminal cases (initial appearances, bail hearings, pretrial motion hearings, etc.), handle certain administrative agency appeals, and provide such other assistance to the district judges as authorized by law (including mediation services). Interns typically work with both the judge and the judge’s law clerk(s). The work includes both legal analysis and writing as well as courtroom/chambers observations.

United States Bankruptcy Court. In this program students attend courtroom hearings, chambers proceedings, and Sec. 341 hearings before the U.S. Trustee. They also perform such research and writing on issues in bankruptcy law as may assigned by the court. To maximize the benefits of this internship, students must be available on Thursday mornings when they will have the opportunity to work with the volunteer lawyers who assist those who are filing for bankruptcy without counsel. This internship is particularly useful for those with an interest in creditor-debtor law. There is typically a considerable opportunity to discuss the cases with the judge.

Milwaukee County Circuit Courts. Placements in state trial courts are ordinarily with judges of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court. With the exception of Children’s Court judges whose courts and chambers are located in Wauwatosa, all of the state court judges are located within two blocks of the Law School. Internship placements in the state circuit court may be available in the following specialized divisions of the circuit court: Civil, Felony, Misdemeanor, Children’s (where juvenile delinquency cases and cases involving abused/neglected children are heard), and Family (primarily divorce cases). A student could also arrange for such a trial court internship with a judge in another jurisdiction subject to the approval of Professor Hammer. If you are interested in an out-of-town trial court placement, please see Professor Hammer.

These internships are most valuable if a student is available to be at the court in 2-3 hour blocks of time. This allows for meaningful opportunities to observe court proceedings and those that occur in chambers. Further, for those interested in clerking with the Civil Division, it should be noted that most civil courts hear motions on Monday mornings. It is particularly useful for students to be available at that time because much of their work involves motions and this is the time when those motions are litigated.

“Wisconsin Judicial System 2012 Volunteer Summer Law Student Internship Program”

SPECIAL NOTE: Students may have received information from the Marquette Office of Career Planning or elsewhere about the “Wisconsin Judicial System 2012 Volunteer Summer Law Student Internship Program.” This program, which is coordinated through the Supreme Court’s Office of Court Operations, is NOT part of the MULS summer judicial internship program. However, students who participate in one of these volunteer placements (which are not limited to Milwaukee County circuit courts) may qualify for academic credit if they enroll in the Law School’s summer judicial internship program, attend meetings of the judicial internship class, file all time and activity reports and evaluation paperwork required by MULS, and otherwise meet MULS program criteria. See Professor Hammer with any questions about obtaining academic credit for participation in the volunteer program. It is not necessary to enroll in the Wisconsin Judicial System volunteer summer program in order to participate in the Law School’s summer judicial internship program; the Law School has its own process for placing judicial interns in the state trial courts.
SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAMS
(2 credits unless noted otherwise)

The Supervised Fieldwork Program was established by action of the Law School faculty in January, 1986. It is designed to offer students an opportunity for a clinical experience in governmental, charitable or public interest law agencies that do not have a sufficient number of placements available to support a full-blown clinical program with its own independent classroom component. Instead, students work under guidance from agency lawyers and under the general supervision of faculty members. Summer interns can also expect to participate in a few meetings with Professor Hammer at times to be determined after placements are made.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
OF THE SUPERVISED FIELDWORK PROGRAM

While the experience of each Supervised Fieldwork Program intern will vary depending upon the nature of his/her placement, it is nonetheless possible to articulate the following statement of educational objectives that are generally applicable in every internship setting. It is anticipated that each intern will have the opportunity for:

- Exposure to new substantive areas of the law (or exposure to familiar areas of substantive law but at a more sophisticated level)
- An immersion in the law of procedure and in the legal and organizational processes employed by the agency to accomplish its work
- The acquisition of specific lawyering skills that are relevant to the particular internship and which are articulated at the outset and measured throughout the internship
- The development of the habit of reflection and continuous self-assessment of the intern’s professional growth
- The acquisition of time management and planning skills
- The assessment of one’s ability to work effectively in the legal profession and the development of one’s confidence in his/her ability to do so
- The identification of ethical issues that arise in the internship setting and the methods for resolving those issues
General Requirements of the Supervised Fieldwork Program

Credits: 2 (unless noted otherwise)
Duration of Internship: One Semester
Time Commitment: 120 hours for 2-credit internships; 180 hours for 3-credit internships; 240 hours for 4-credit internships
Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
Limited to students who have completed 27 credits.
Other prerequisites/co-requisites are catalogued below in the “Special Notes” section.

Special Notes on Supervised Fieldwork Program Placements

AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin. The AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin (ARCW) is the largest AIDS resource provider in the state of Wisconsin. The ARCW has nine different locations across the state of Wisconsin, but the largest office is located in downtown Milwaukee. In addition to legal services, ARCW provides numerous other services including medical care, dental care, mental health care, social services, housing services, and AIDS prevention services.

In this internship students assist staff lawyers in a variety of legal matters, including advance directives, discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations, social security disability, insurance, guardianships, evictions and bankruptcies. Activities include interviewing clients, conducting legal research, drafting documents, assisting attorneys at hearings, etc. Prerequisite: Civil Procedure.

Catholic Charities Legal Services for Immigrants. Catholic Charities is a nonprofit organization operating under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The agency provides family-based immigration services, helps the Archdiocese obtain religious visas for foreign priests and nuns, represents clients in removal proceedings, assists clients apply for asylum, helps victims of domestic violence obtain permanent residence under the Violence Against Women Act, and helps victims of crime to apply for “U” visas. Under the supervision of agency lawyers the interns interview clients, assist in the preparation of relevant documents, research legal issues pertinent to immigration law, and perform such other case-related tasks as may be necessary. Some attend or assist at immigration hearings in Chicago. Though not required, knowledge of Spanish can be useful in this internship. Prerequisite: Immigration Law or Consent of the Director of Clinical Education.

Scheduling Note for Catholic Charities: The agency provides free consults throughout the day on Wednesday; many of these consults lead to intakes of new cases for the organization. Wednesdays are thus good days to be present in the office.

Centro Legal. Centro Legal is a nonprofit organization located on the south side of Milwaukee that provides low-cost legal services to low-income residents. At the present time the focus of the agency’s work is upon family law litigation and the defense of misdemeanor criminal cases. For the 2012 summer term a placement is available in the misdemeanor unit. Students will be certified under the Wisconsin Student Practice Rule so that they may make on-the-record appearances in court on behalf of their clients. The great majority of Centro Legal’s clients are English speaking; knowledge of Spanish is not required. To be eligible for this internship an applicant must have completed 45 credits by May 21, 2012. Prerequisite: Criminal Process.

Disability Rights Wisconsin. Disability Rights Wisconsin is a private nonprofit organization that was founded in 1977. Designated by the Governor to ensure the rights of all state citizens with disabilities through individual advocacy and system change, DRW is part of a national system of federally mandated independent disability agencies. Disability Rights Wisconsin serves people of all ages, including people with developmental disabilities, people with mental illness, people with physical or sensory disabilities, and people with traumatic brain injury.

In this internship students assist agency lawyers with research, drafting pleadings, fair hearings, investigations, court actions, client interviews, policy and legislative advocacy, etc. They are assigned to one of two teams of lawyers: the Community and Institutions team (Medicaid and Family Care benefits, abuse and neglect in institutions, guardianships and protective placements, mental health advocacy, etc.) or the Schools and Civil Rights team (special education, employment discrimination, reasonable accommodations, etc.)

Internal Revenue Service. This internship is actually with the Office of Chief Counsel for the United States Department of the Treasury. Student interns assist attorneys assigned to the Milwaukee office in preparing cases for trial before the United States Tax Court, reviewing the merits of refund litigation, furnishing legal advice necessary to protect and collect tax claims of the United States (which may involve matters pertaining to bankruptcy, administrative summonses, liens, levies, decedents’ estates, etc.), and perhaps evaluating potential criminal tax prosecutions. Prerequisite: Federal Income Taxation.

Legal Action of Wisconsin, Inc.: Legal Action of Wisconsin, with offices located at 230 West Wells Street in downtown Milwaukee, provides legal representation in discreet practice areas to low income people and others to whom access to the justice system might otherwise be denied. Some students will be assigned to work with Legal Action lawyers who handle Senior Law matters (including public benefits, housing, and Medicare/Medicaid issues). Others will work in the Housing unit (which handles such matters as eviction defense, abusive landlord practices, housing conditions and habitability, access to affordable housing, and other issues affecting tenants in subsidized housing). There will also be an assignment available in the agency’s innovative “Road to Opportunity” Program, which is designed to make individuals more employable by eliminating barriers to employment, e.g., driver’s license problems, criminal records issues, and credit/debt issues. The application form allows students to apply for placement in one or more of Legal Action’s various units and to prioritize their preferences. Prerequisite: Civil Procedure.

Scheduling Note for Legal Action of Wisconsin: The Housing unit does intake interviews on Monday and Thursday mornings (starting at about 9:00 a.m.). The lawyers in the Senior Law division hold informative staff meetings on Wednesday mornings (starting at about 10:00 a.m.) in which the interns can participate if available; further Senior Law does walk-in intake of new clients on Tuesday mornings and Friday afternoons and telephone intakes at numerous other times throughout the week. Intake offers an opportunity to develop interviewing and fact investigation skills.

Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee: The Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee furnishes a wide variety of civil legal services to low income clients in the Milwaukee area. At its downtown office agency lawyers represent clients in diverse practice areas, including landlord-tenant, consumer/predatory lending, fraudulent practices involving mortgages, elder law, health law (including SSI disability and Medicare/Medicaid matters), legal problems confronting the homeless, tax and bankruptcy, mental health commitments, and certain civil rights actions. Several lawyers in the downtown office also provide guardian ad litem representation in the Family Division of the Circuit Court to children in the context of divorce, custody and paternity proceedings.

At its office in the Vel Phillips Juvenile Justice Center in Wauwatosa, Legal Aid lawyers serve as guardians ad litem for children who are abused or neglected. They function in this capacity in Children in Need of Protection or Services (“CHIPS”) cases and in Termination of Parental Rights (“TPR”) proceedings.

Depending on agency requirements and intern interests, students may serve in a number of different service areas within LAS or concentrate in one area. Whether at the downtown office or at the Juvenile Justice Center, students assist Legal Aid Society lawyers in the full range of activities performed by those lawyers. Their activities can include case investigation, legal research, interviewing clients and witnesses, providing assistance with regard to matters in litigation, attending court proceedings, and drafting documents/briefs for both trial and appellate courts. Prerequisite for all Legal Aid Society internships: Civil Procedure.

Special Information about Legal Aid Society Internships:

1. The application form allows students to apply for placement in one or more of Legal Aid’s various divisions and to prioritize their preferences.

2. Interns on general assignment in the downtown office may have the opportunity to participate in client intake interviewing if they are at the office on Monday and Wednesday afternoons. This is a popular opportunity to work on interviewing skills.

3. The intern assigned to the downtown Family Law Program must be eligible for student practice licensing (45 credits completed before internship commences). This requirement is essential because this intern will have the opportunity to spend a considerable amount of time in court appearing on the record. The best opportunities for in-court time occur on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

New in 2012

4. New in 2012 is a special assignment within the Legal Aid Society to the attorney who represents the poor in bankruptcy proceedings. This intern must have already completed the Creditor-Debtor course and must be available to report to Legal Aid during morning hours.

Marquette Legal Initiative for Nonprofit Corporation (M-LINC). The Marquette Legal Initiative for Nonprofit Corporations (M-LINC) offers free legal assistance to Wisconsin 501(c)(3) organizations. It is comprised of legal professionals, students, and volunteers who are committed to serving such nonprofits through a legal referral service, free educational programs, and an annual comprehensive strategic analysis of a chosen nonprofit.

M-LINC interns assist the M-LINC Director in fielding nonprofit client inquiries. Experiences in this internship may include reviewing and updating bylaws, reviewing and updating articles of incorporation, drafting employee policies, preparing governance policies, reviewing and updating lease agreements, advising nonprofits on structuring property ownership and arrangements for advantageous tax treatment, researching worker’s compensation issues, providing advice on legal issues relating to the use of volunteers, etc. Supervising Faculty Member: Prof. Karin Werner. Preference will be given to students who have already completed the Nonprofit Law and Organizations course. There is some flexibility in the scheduling of this internship and Prof. Werner will work with the interns to identify ways to coordinate their schedules with clinic hours.

Medical College of Wisconsin Office of Risk Management. The Medical College of Wisconsin employs over 1,000 physicians as members of its faculty. These doctors staff such medical facilities as Froedtert Hospital and Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin. Lawyers in the College’s Office of Risk Management provide legal advice to physicians and to the College in matters involving allegations of medical negligence. They also provide legal advice intended to proactively prevent claims. The office also responds to legal issues that may arise during the course of treatment, assists in the development of policy to minimize risk, and periodically addresses medical ethics concerns. Scheduling Note: Interns should try to be available for at least some of the weekly “quality assurance meetings” that occur on Fridays at 10:00 a.m. Preference will be given to students who have completed Health Law or Health Care Provider Liability.

Metro Milwaukee Foreclosure Mediation Program. Students work with the Program Coordinator to support the Metro Milwaukee Foreclosure Mediation Program, a court-annexed alternative to foreclosure litigation. Pending foreclosure cases are eligible for mediation, subject to acceptance by both parties. In most cases the mediation session will serve as a venue to work out new loan terms, a short sale, or other solution that is mutually agreeable, and execute a final agreement between the parties.

Duties include providing information on the availability of the mediation program during Motion Mondays at the Milwaukee County Courthouse, contacting homeowners by phone to provide information on the foreclosure mediation process, opening case files and providing general administrative support. Students will have an assigned case load to monitor throughout the mediation process to ensure timely completion of the mediation session. Students will also attend mediation sessions, and those with appropriate mediation experience may have the opportunity to co-mediate foreclosure cases with experienced mediators. Its large staff handles litigation on behalf of the City, provides legal advice and opinions, prepares and reviews City resolutions and ordinances, drafts contracts and other legal documents, and prosecutes violations of City ordinances in the Milwaukee Municipal Court.

During the 2012 summer session interns will be assigned to work with Assistant City Attorneys who handle civil litigation (primarily personal injury cases) and § 1983 civil rights actions. The placement should be attractive to students seeking exposure to the practical side of civil litigation and experience with all phases of the civil lawsuit. Prerequisite: Civil Procedure.

Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel. This internship offers an opportunity for first-hand exposure to the practice of municipal law in the county government context. The Corporation Counsel acts as the legal advisor to the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors and to the Milwaukee County Executive.

Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 59.42, the Corporation Counsel prosecutes or defends all civil actions in which Milwaukee County, or any of its boards, commissions, committees, departments or officers is interested or a party; issues opinions; drafts county ordinances and resolutions; drafts proposed legislation; processes commitments of mentally ill persons; drafts protective placement pleadings and guardianships for “developmentally disabled and aged infirm persons,” and acts as general counsel for the county in all civil matters in all federal and state courts and before all federal, state and county administrative bodies and agencies.

In this internship students assist Corporation Counsel attorneys in a variety of contexts. Their duties may include the provision of assistance in mental commitment hearings under Wis. Stat. ch. 51 (which are handled at the Milwaukee County Behavioral Health Division in Wauwatosa each morning beginning at 8:30 a.m.) and the performance of research on a wide variety of municipal law issues. The latter could include researching and drafting county ordinances and resolutions and researching policy matters involving the legislative or executive branches of Milwaukee County government.
