Marquette University Law School
Accommodation for Examinations

Students with a documented disability or special circumstances may be entitled to certain academic accommodations for their examinations. To be eligible to receive any accommodations a student must: 1) meet with the Law School’s Registrar, who is responsible for providing academic accommodations within the Law School; and 2) receive from the Law School Registrar pre-approval for the specific accommodations sought.

To arrange for a pre-approved exam accommodation, fill out and submit the attached form to Eckstein Hall, Room 238, no later than one week prior to the last day of classes. Details and instructions about the special exam(s) will be communicated to you in writing (via email) no later than the Study Day.
