Sports Law at Marquette

35 years of building success

Connecticut, New Mexico, Virginia—those are just three of the home states of the 27 students who received sports law certificates as they graduated from Marquette Law School in 2024. From coast to coast, aspiring lawyers with an interest in the burgeoning world of sports law are drawn to Marquette. Home to the National Sports Law Institute, Marquette offers not only a broad curriculum but also opportunities for internships and networking with sports world leaders. When alumni and students gathered in April 2024, they celebrated a program that was 35 years old—and still on the rise.
