

Jeffrey Perzan – Jeff is an attorney currently in private practice specializing in international business transactions, outsourcing, technology, intellectual property, and diabetes-related matters.

Prior to this, he spent two decades in the corporate world with IBM (including three years in France at its European headquarters) and Fiserv, most recently as Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel. During this time, he has conducted licensing negotiations in over 60 countries, joint ventures in the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Africa, and led acquisitions in the Americas, Europe, and the Pacific.

He is a member of the State Bars of New York, North Carolina, and New York, and a Fellow in the Center for International Legal Studies; and currently serves on the Wisconsin State Bar's Professionalism Committee and of the International Practice Section, where he was a past Chair.

Academically, he received his BA in International Relations from Yale (with an emphasis on the Middle East) cum laude, his JD from Columbia Law School, and a Certificate from the Parker School of Foreign and Comparative Law. He has spoken on a number of international topics at fora such International Bar Association, American Conference Institute, and the Center for International Legal Studies.