JUSTUS LIEBIG UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL - GIESSEN

July 18 through August 15, 2015

TO BE HELD ON THE CAMPUS OF
JUSTUS LIEBIG UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL
GIESSEN, GERMANY

REGISTRATION

Eligibility Requirements

A Student may register for courses in the Summer Session if:

(1) The student has completed at least one year (part or full time) of legal education at Marquette University Law School, the University of Wisconsin Law School or at any other ABA approved US law school, or a similarly accredited university in any other country in the Americas,

and

(2) The student demonstrates that he or she is in good standing and eligible to return to his or her present university or law school.

Application Instructions

Applications from Marquette and UW students should be submitted to their home institutions. Applications from non-Marquette and non-UW law students must be submitted to Marquette either electronically as provided below or in hard copy to Professor Edward Fallone at the address shown below.
Marquette and UW students will be enrolled through their own schools and will receive credit through their schools. Non-Marquette, non-UW students will receive their credits through Marquette. However, it is the home school of those students that determines the transferability of credits. Non-Marquette and non-UW students proposing to enroll in this program should assure themselves that credit for the Summer Sessions will be accepted by their home schools before applying.
