Larry A. Whitley is Counsel – Real Estate Investments in the Law Department of Northwestern Mutual. In this role, he represents the company (and its subsidiaries) in all aspects of its real estate investment activities, including permanent and construction financing transactions, acquisition and disposition of real estate assets, asset management, and leasing transactions. He is a member of the law department's Summer Clerkship Committee and he also serves on Northwestern Mutual's Sustained Action for Racial Equity Task Force.

Mr. Whitley joined Northwestern Mutual in May, 2015, as a Law Clerk and was subsequently promoted to Counsel in July, 2016. Mr. Whitley earned his B.S. in Business and his J.D. from Marquette University. The Milwaukee native is a 2008 graduate of Rufus King High School.

Mr. Whitley is admitted to practice law in Wisconsin, is a member of the Wisconsin Association of African American Lawyers, and the Greater Milwaukee Foundation's Young Professionals Adviser Council.

In his spare time, he enjoys playing basketball, watching boxing, and writing. Here is a recent piece that Larry wrote for the Wisconsin Lawyer Magazine.
