Welcome to Marquette Law School! We realize that choosing a law school is a deeply personal and complicated decision. While we hope that you will plan to visit us in-person, virtual options are, of course, available.

To ease the expense of your visit, we are pleased to offer reimbursement toward hotel and travel expenses.

Reimbursement Conditions: Reimbursement is payable only if the admitted student makes an official, in-person visit to Marquette Law School. Official visits include individual appointments, information sessions, or open houses. The visit must take place between the date of the student’s offer of admission and August 1, 2021.

An admitted student that visits Marquette Law School may have their travel and/or lodging costs reimbursed up to a maximum of $550 if they enroll at Marquette Law School in August 2021. If they do not enroll at Marquette Law School in August 2021, the maximum amount of a potential travel and/or lodging reimbursement for an admitted student is $350.

In all cases, travel reimbursement will be paid only if the admitted student supplies receipts and the required reimbursement forms (Federal W-9 form and Marquette University non-Employee Travel Reimbursement Form). Please do not make any arrangements without reviewing all of the specifics.

Reimbursement Timeline:
For an admitted student that enrolls at Marquette Law School in August 2021, the reimbursement will be payable after fall semester classes begin in late August 2021.

If the admitted student does not enroll at Marquette Law School in August 2021, the admitted student will be eligible to submit a request for reimbursement at the point that they withdraw from the fall 2021 entering class at Marquette Law School.

In all cases, reimbursement will be paid only if the admitted student supplies receipts and the required reimbursement forms (Federal W-9 form and Marquette University non-Employee Travel Reimbursement Form). The visit must take place between the date of the admitted student’s offer of admission and August 1, 2021. Please see below for more specifics.
