Team Website

Stadium: Cheney Stadium

Date Built: 1960 (renovated in 2011)

Facility Cost ($/Mil): $.940 ($30 for renovations)

Facility Financing: The stadium was publicly financed by the city, while Ben Cheney provided $100,000 for cost overruns.

Facility Website

UPDATE: Between the 2010 and 2011 seasons, the stadium underwent a massive renovation. The renovations incorporated over 9,000 pounds of steel that span across more than 96,000 square feet and a roof made from Douglas Fir beams, the largest of which weigh over 7000 lbs. It also features a wooden exterior to be geographically relevant.

Cheney now features amenities that include luxury suites, a new restaurant, club seats that are closer than any other seat in any other baseball park across the nation, and a grass berm located along right field. The stadium has twice as many concession points of sale and better ADA access and seating. Wooden railings were replaced, and the home dugout shifted from the first base line to the third base line.

NAMING RIGHTS: The ballpark is named for Tacoma businessman Ben Cheney who was instrumental in bringing a Pacific Coast League team to Tacoma. In 2002, the City of Tacoma hired The Superlative Group, a Cleveland-based marketing company, to find corporate sponsors for the Tacoma Dome, the city's new convention center, Cheney Stadium, and the Broadway Center for the Performing Arts.

UPDATE: The stadium underwent major renovations before the 2011 season. The renovations included a new scoreboard with video and audio, a new picnic area in the left field corner, bump-out seating areas that bring fans closer to the foul lines in the outfield corners, and new vantage points from the outfield concourse. Additionally, the locker rooms were renovated; the lighting for the field was replaced; and the field itself was changed from grass to artificial turf.

The work was paid for by a $5 million bond issue that is being repaid by revenue generated by sales and income taxes paid at the stadium. Tax increment financing also contributed.

NAMING RIGHTS: The stadium is named for Stan Coveleski, the Hall of Fame pitcher who once lived in South Bend.
