

JOHN D. JOHNSON

2411 S. Kinnickinnic Ave.
Milwaukee, WI 53204
(309) 255-4572
john.d.johnson@marquette.edu

EXPERIENCE

Marquette University Law School, April 2016-present

Lubar Research Associate (April 2016 – April 2018)

Lubar Research Fellow (April 2018 – present)

Activities include collaboration in all aspects of the Marquette Law School Poll as well as original research projects on Wisconsin, the greater Milwaukee area, and Milwaukee neighborhoods.

University of Illinois at Chicago, August 2014 – December 2015

Teaching Assistant (August 2014 – December 2015)

- American Government and Research Methods

Department IT Coordinator (May 2015 – December 2015)

EDUCATION

University of Illinois at Chicago

Master of Arts: December 2015

Major: Political Science, GPA 3.81

Emphases: Local Politics, Urban Politics, American Politics

Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL

Bachelor of Arts: May 2014, summa cum laude

Majors: History and Political Science, GPA 4.0

- Spring 2014 History Department Scholar
- Spring 2014 Political Science Department Scholar
- Spring 2014 College Scholar (Arts and Sciences)

Emphases: International Relations and Comparative Politics, 20th Century History

Macomb High School, Macomb, IL

Summa cum laude, May 2011

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

- “The Milwaukee Area’s Future Workforce,” Marquette University Law School Faculty Blog, October 30, 2017
- “Commuting and Migrating in the Milwaukee Area,” Marquette University Law School Faculty Blog, October 27, 2017
- “Population and Employment Trends in the Milwaukee Area,” Marquette University Law School Faculty Blog, October 25, 2017
- “The Milwaukee Area Project”, presentation, Lubar Center for Public Policy Research and Civic Education conference, October 24, 2017
- “Wisconsin Grows, but Most Municipalities Shrink,” Marquette University Law School Faculty Blog, May 26, 2017
- “Marquette Law School Poll Reveals Public Perceptions of Water-Related Issues,” Marquette Law School Faculty Blog, September 16, 2016 (with David Strifling)